

Faith Alone

Word of the Day: Faith

- Galatians 2:16, Galatians 5:1
- Hebrews 11:1 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.

1) Faith involves believing what God has said.

Psalm 103:12, Romans 4:1-8, John 14:6

- Genesis 15 is God covenant to Abram, and it is here that we find the Abram believed God and it was counted to him as righteousness. (15:6)
- Genesis 17:9-14 was when God asked Abraham to be circumcised to show the covenant between God and him and that was 29 years after when he believed God, and it was counted as righteousness.
- Counted means to put in one's account.
- Our Identity in Christ matters and what God declares us to be is all that matters.
- Romans 5:1 God declares us as righteous
- 1 Corinthians 1:2 we are called Saints
- 1 Peter 2:9 we are a royal priesthood and Holy.
- Hebrews 8:12 God will remember our sins no more.
- Micah 7:19 God throws our sins into the ocean
- Isaiah 38:17 God tosses our sins behind His back.
- Romans 4 is proof that justification by faith is taught in the OT and not some new doctrine Paul has introduced.
- Ephesians 2:8-9 salvation is a gift received by faith.
- We are joined to the righteousness of Christ which is how we become righteous. (2 Corinthians 5:21)
- Acts 4:12 says that salvation is found in no one else besides Jesus.

2) Faith is how we become Children of God.

Romans 3:21-24, Philippians 3:9, Romans 3:26-27, Hebrews 11:8, Romans 4:20-25, John 1:11-13

- The law of God was not written till 430 years after Abraham believed God by faith.
- Is faith a work?
- Romans 3:26-27 and Galatians 2:16 show that faith is opposed to works.
- J. Gresham Machen said, "faith consists not in doing something but in receiving something."
- Faith is trusting Gods word and believing Gods promises.
- James 2:14-26 shows that our faith leads to works but it does not mean works save us.
- Faith is being "Fully convinced that God was (is) able to do what He had promised." (Romans 4:21)

3) Faith is offered to the world

Romans 10:14-17, John 3:16-18

- Paul is quoting from Genesis 12:3 and 18:18
- It was always God's intention to save the world through faith.
- Faith acknowledges that we cannot reach salvation with our own potential.
- Faith is believing that God said what He would do and that He would do it.
- Ephesians 2:8-9

Devotions Galatians 3:6-9

1. Why is it difficult for people to accept what Christ has done for us?
2. How do we become the sons of Abraham?
3. What does it mean to have faith?
4. How does God justify the gentiles (us)?
5. Why is it difficult to trust what God has said?
