1. When things go wrong, is it comforting to know that God is working a sovereign plan in your life (Romans 8:28)? Why or why not?
2. Why do you think Jesus didn't take the time to explain, to the paralyzed man, that the healing power of the water was only superstitious?
3. Why is it important to understand that Jesus is functionally subordinate to the Father, yet still God?
4. How does Jesus speak into your life?
