Mark 15:1 to 16:8 / 1Peter 3:18-20

NOTES

Jesus suffered ridicule from His siblings, He suffered extreme temptation in the desert by the devil, and He suffered severe physical beating, and finally He suffered an agonizing death. Does it help you, when you face suffering, to remember Jesus also suffered (Hebrews 2:18 / 5:8)? Why or why not?

How does the Apostles' Creed's emphasis on Jesus' suffering, death and resurrection help you understand the pivotal importance of Jesus' death and resurrection?

How does knowing that Jesus' tomb was empty on the third day encourage you in your faith (Mark 16:4-8 / Matthew 28:9-11)?

Does the fact that there is spiritual conflict always happening, which cannot be seen change the way you view current events (Daniel 10:13)? Why or why not?
