

Why do you think Paul urges us by the “mercies of God” to present our bodies a sacrifice and does not command us to do this?

Is it important to present our bodies as a sacrifice daily? Why or why not?

What are some ways each of us are conformed to the world?

What are some steps a person could take in order to put themselves in a position to be renewed?