

The Story
NOTES

When sharing the gospel why is it important to explain that a perfect God made a perfect creation, which was characterized by harmony?

When sharing the gospel why is it important to explain that the first man and woman sinned by disobeying God's one command, which lead to the brokenness we see all around us today?

When sharing the gospel why is it important to explain that God demonstrated His love by sending His Son when we were yet sinners?

When sharing the gospel why is it important to explain that God has a plan for the present and the future?
