

“Prayer is not an emotion, not a sincere desire; prayer is the most stupendous effort of the will.” Do you agree with this statement by Oswald Chambers? Why or why not?

How does prayer draw you closer to God?

Why should we speak directly and plainly to God (Matthew 6:8)?

In what way could you improve your prayer life, and how will you accomplish this?