Today We Will Be Learning, Loving, and Living with Christ

Kennison's Corner

Dear Parents,

The faith formation of your children is at the heart of our mission. Each week, it is truly a blessing to join them for Mass, begin each day with prayer, see them in the hallways and classrooms, and witness their participation in CYO events and on the playground. Watching them grow over the years is a gift. When we gather each Wednesday for school Mass, it feels like being with family. I look around and see students (your children) sitting with their Mass buddies—older students guiding younger ones with the Gather books, showing when to stand, kneel, or sit, and modeling how to pray with reverence. They form bonds, and I am so grateful each time an adult or visitor comments on the respect and devotion our students display.

Each week, one class receives the vocation cross, and together, we say a prayer for an increase in vocations to religious life, led by Father Danda. After Mass, we join in the St. Thomas Aquinas Thanksgiving Prayer. Last week, after finishing the prayer, I shared with the students how often we hear from parishioners and visitors about their reverent behavior. Their faces lit up with pride, as they realized the positive impact they were making.

Reflecting on this moment, I was reminded of how each interaction shapes us and others, and how important it is to cultivate relationships in love and faith. It's in these small moments that our community grows stronger.

In Christ,

Mrs. Saundra Kennison
Principal
