Tools for Parents and Transitions Ahead

Monday, November 17 • 6:00 - 7:15 PM

Join a conversation with two students and their parents as they share firsthand perspectives with understanding and resilience. This engaging evening will:

- Define and discuss invisible disabilities
- Provide tips for helping your children feel more accepted and successful in school
- Equip you with simple, effective strategies to support your child with confidence
- Learn what you can do to support their transition to high school

A group of 7th-grade students, who participate in NJHS, went to Brownsburg Meadows on Halloween to bring some smiles! They helped out with games at the residents' Halloween party.
