Rock Solid: The God of the Psalms

God, our liberator

Psalm 34

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

The following questions are intended to use in discussion and application of the past week's sermon.

Listening

What part of the sermon was most helpful to you or challenged you to think and/or live differently? How will you apply this message to your life?

Engaging

Galatians 5:1 begins, "For freedom Christ has set us free." Discuss why freedom is a marker of the Christian life and how that differs from a 'do whatever I want' posture.

Psalm 34:8 says, "Taste and see that the LORD is good!" Compare this with the conversation between the serpent and Eve in Genesis 3:4-6. How can we discern the things that are truly good for us and the lies that our temptations and the enemy try to lure us with?

Applying

David put himself in a tough situation - and even then the gracious liberation of God proved stronger than his circumstances. In terms Pastor John used often in this message, when have our foolish or reckless decisions placed us in dangerous situations because of temptations, or carelessness, or desires of the flesh? What does God desire from us when we find ourselves there?

As this week concludes our Rock Solid sermon series, think back on the characteristics of God we've explored. What insights or applications have stood out and changed you the most?

Praying

In light of this message and discussion:

How can we pray for each other?
Where do you feel challenged or convicted?
What can we praise God for?
How can we pray for our church?

TIMBERLINE
WINDSOR