A collage of various documents, including a newspaper clipping about a 'FACT CHECK' and a 'Think in a world of Integration' sign. The collage is composed of several overlapping images: a newspaper clipping with the headline 'FACT CHECK' and a sub-headline 'Think in a world of Integration', a newspaper clipping with the headline 'FACT CHECK' and a sub-headline 'Think in a world of Integration', a newspaper clipping with the headline 'FACT CHECK' and a sub-headline 'Think in a world of Integration', and a newspaper clipping with the headline 'FACT CHECK' and a sub-headline 'Think in a world of Integration'. The collage is set against a background of a newspaper clipping with the headline 'FACT CHECK' and a sub-headline 'Think in a world of Integration'.

This image shows a vertical rectangular area filled with horizontal grey lines, resembling a piece of notebook paper. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There is no text or other content on the page.

What is the one important thing you will take away from this weekend's message or our community group discussion? Is there any challenge, difficulty or praise that you would like to share with the group for prayer?

What does God want us to hear? Based on the passage and the questions above, what “takeaways” do you think God has revealed to you?

WHAT DOES GOD WANT US TO DO?

According to Pastor Chris, what are the some of the popular proofs of God's existence (argument from design, first cause, etc.)?

How does the indisputable resurrection of Jesus prove the existence of God?

How can we answer the question, "Who is God?" by looking at the person and work of Jesus?

How do the popular "alternative gods" (money, intimacy, power, status, etc.) only give a taste of what God offers, without delivering the goods?

What does God want us to do? Flowing out of our reading and interpretation, what action does this passage or the Spirit's leading, call us to

WHAT DOES GOD WANT ME TO DO?

Which of the popular "alternative gods" (money, intimacy, power, status, etc.) has the most pull on you?

What does that false god only offer a taste of, that only Jesus can satisfy completely?

What would it take to let go of any residual devotion to any false god?

What does God want ME to do? What is the personal application and action step God is calling you, personally, toward?
