The Feast of St. Francis of Assisi
Holy Eucharist in the Round at 9 am

October 6, 2024

325 PARK AVENUE AT 51ST STREET
NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10022

EVERYBODY NEEDS A PLACE

We invite you to make this place yours.

Here is a place that is ancient and new, a faith that we hold going back to Jesus, back to his spiritual ancestors, back to those who walked the earth and found holy ground. And what we do is often based on really ancient patterns—worship and music; loving service to the poor, the hurting, the lonely; working for justice and peace; lively, fearless education and formation of minds and souls. And that faith is also completely contemporary, engaged in the culture and the needs of the moment.

What we are for

The dignity and worth of every person. An open minded, passionate commitment to truth. The importance of everyone's own spiritual journey. God's friends wherever we find them. Seeking Christ in every person who comes through the door. The sacredness of life's rites of passage. The value of community. The hard work necessary to make sure that all are welcomed. Telling the truth about life's challenges. A "user-friendly" church experience. Children, youth and families.

What we are against

Claiming to have all the answers. Elitism and exclusivism, especially in church. Bigotry for any reason. Authoritarianism. Indifference to injustice and suffering. Certitude in the face of ambiguity and superficial answers to hard questions. Boring sermons, bad music and general cluelessness. (So, God help us, because we don't always avoid these!)

What we value

Community, open hearts, open minds, open arms. Faith. Fortitude. Staying current, but equally staying rooted in tradition. Reason and honesty. Civic responsibility as New Yorkers, Americans and global citizens. Debate that allows for mutual respect. Music and beauty for their own sake. Joy in God's creation. Anyone who makes an effort to get to know and follow Jesus.

We are so glad you are here!

The Opening Acclamation

Presider Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People Glory to God for ever and ever.

The Ministry of the Word

The Collect

Presider May God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Together, let us pray.

All Most high, omnipotent, good Lord, grant your people grace to renounce gladly the vanities of this world; that, following the way of blessed Francis, we may, for love of you, delight in your whole creation with perfectness of joy; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

The people sit.

The Lesson Job 39:1-18

Lector A reading from the Book of Job.

Do you know when the mountain goats give birth? Do you observe the calving of the deer? Can you number the months that they fulfil, and do you know the time when they give birth, when they crouch to give birth to their offspring, and are delivered of their young? Their young ones become strong, they grow up in the open; they go forth, and do not return to them. Who has let the wild ass go free? Who has loosed the bonds of the swift ass, to which I have given the steppe for its home, the salt land for its dwelling-place? It scorns the tumult of the city; it does not hear the shouts of the driver. It ranges the mountains as its pasture, and it searches after every green thing. Is the wild ox willing to serve you? Will it spend the night at your crib? Can you tie it in the furrow with ropes, or will it harrow the valleys after you? Will you depend on it because its strength is great, and will you hand over your labor to it? Do you have faith in it that it will return, and bring your grain to your threshing-floor? The ostrich's wings flap wildly, though its pinions lack plumage. For it leaves its eggs to the earth, and lets them be warmed on the ground, forgetting that a foot may crush them, and that a wild animal may trample them. It deals cruelly with its young, as if they were not its own; though its labor should be in vain, yet it has no fear; because God has made it forget wisdom, and given it no share in understanding. When it spreads its plumes aloft, it laughs at the horse and its rider.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The people stand as the music begins.

The Holy Gospel Luke 12:13-21

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me." But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?" And he said to them, "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." Then he told them a parable: "The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, 'What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?' Then he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.' But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God."

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

After the preacher introduces the sermon, the people sit.

The Sermon The Right Reverend Dean E. Wolfe, Rector

An extended period of silence is kept. The people stand as the music begins.

The Prayers of the People

Presider God of every nation, healer of the world: your saving power extends beyond barriers and borders; you gather those from east and west, north and south, to join the heavenly feast. Hear us, as we pray for healing in this and every land.

Intercessor I We pray for healing within our country. Guide the selection of our civic leaders. Soothe the rancor that infects our public life. Help us as we work to foster unity and rebuild trust.

All

God of eve - ry na - tion, heal - er of the world. —

God of eve - ry na - tion, hear us, we pray. —

The image shows a musical score for two systems of music. Each system consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are: 'God of eve - ry na - tion, heal - er of the world. —' and 'God of eve - ry na - tion, hear us, we pray. —'. The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords that support the vocal melody.

Music: adapted from Deusche Messe (D 872), Franz Schubert (1797-1828).

Intercessor II We pray for healing around the globe. Bridge the divides that persist between kingdoms and nations. End the wars that cause destruction and grief. Give us harmony and peace.
All God of every nation, healer of the world: God of every nation, hear us, we pray.

Intercessor III We pray for healing within our Church. Settle the conflicts and disputes that arise among us. Strengthen our efforts to welcome everyone. Teach us to serve others and not ourselves.

All God of every nation, healer of the world: God of every nation, hear us, we pray.

Intercessor I We pray for the healing of Creation. Still the frightening trembles of our shaking earth. Restore our fragile ecosystems: bring dryness where there are floods; bring rain where there is drought. Persuade us, as individuals and as a society, to change our habits for good.

All God of every nation, healer of the world: God of every nation, hear us, we pray.

Intercessor II We pray for the healing of those who suffer, including those we now name.

The people may add their own petitions.

We pray as well for those who have died, including those we now name.

The people may add their own petitions.

May the poor have what they need; may the sick and dying be raised up; and may every tear be wiped away.

All God of every nation, healer of the world: God of every nation, hear us, we pray.

Intercessor III We thank you for all the healing ways in which joy and happiness have come into our lives, including those we now name.

The people may add their own petitions.

Kindle hope in us when we become discouraged. Inspire us to plant seeds of love, with faith in you and in all the future holds.

All God of every nation, healer of the world: God of every nation, hear us, we pray.

Presider Lord, make us instruments of your peace. Where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

All Amen.

The Peace

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

The people exchange a sign of God's peace with one another and then sit.

Anthem St. Bart's Singers

For the beauty of the earth, for the beauty of the skies,
For the love which from our birth over and around us lies:
Lord of all, to thee we raise this our joyful hymn of praise.

For the beauty of each hour of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale and tree and flower, sun and moon and stars of light:
Lord of all, to thee we raise this our joyful hymn of praise.

For the joy of human love, brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth, and friends above, for all gentle thoughts and mild:
Lord of all, to thee we raise this our joyful hymn of praise.

For each perfect gift of thine to our race so freely given,
Graces human and divine, flow'rs of earth and buds of heav'n:
Lord of all, to thee we raise this our joyful hymn of praise.

Words: Folliot Sandford Pierpoint (1835-1917).
Music: John Rutter (b. 1945).

The people stand.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord is here.
People God's Spirit is with us.

Presider Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to offer thanks and praise.

Presider It is the joy of our salvation, God of the universe, to give you thanks through Jesus Christ. You said, "Let there be light"; there was light. Your light shines on in our darkness. For you the earth has brought forth life in all its forms.

You have created us to hear your Word, to do your will, and to be fulfilled in your love. You sent your Son to be for us the way we need to follow and the truth we need to know.

You sent your Holy Spirit to strengthen and to guide, to warn and to revive your Church. Therefore, with all your witnesses who surround us on every side, countless as heaven's stars, we praise you for our creation and our calling, with loving and with joyful hearts as we sing:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,
God of pow - er and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glor - y. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bles - sed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -
san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est!

Music: from Mass for St. Bartholomew's, William K. Trafka (b. 1956).

Presider Blessed are you, most holy, in your Son; On that night before he died, he took bread and gave you thanks. He broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said: Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you; do this to remember me.

After supper, he took the cup, and gave you thanks. He gave it to them and said: Drink this. It is my blood of the new covenant, shed for you, shed for all, to forgive sin; do this to remember me.

Therefore with this bread and wine we recall your goodness to us.

God of the past and present, we your people remember your Son. We thank you for his cross and rising again, we take courage from his ascension; we look for his coming in glory and in him we give ourselves to you.

With thanksgiving and hope we say:

All Glory to you, Lord Christ;
your death we show forth;
your resurrection we proclaim;
your coming we await;
Amen! Come Lord Jesus.

Presider Send your Holy Spirit, that we who receive Christ's body may indeed be the body of Christ, and we who share his cup draw strength from the one true vine.
Called to follow Christ, help us to reconcile and unite. Called to suffer, give us hope in our calling.
For you, the heavenly one, make all things new; you are the beginning and the end, the last and the first, to whom we bring our songs of everlasting praise.

All Blessing, honor and glory be yours, here and everywhere, now and forever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction Anthem

The presider breaks the bread. Silence is kept.

Presider May Christ, the broken bread, mend our wounded world.
People May Christ, the outpoured cup, heal our hurting souls.

The Invitation to Communion

Presider Here is a feast of rich food and of well-aged wine. Be glad and rejoice in God's salvation, for here at this feast, God has brought the nations together; here at this feast, God has wiped away your tears; here at this feast, God has swallowed up death forever.

The people sit.

At the Communion

- All are welcome to receive Holy Communion. Please follow the instructions of the ushers. Both bread and wine are offered. After receiving the bread, please proceed to the chalice of wine if you would like to receive it.
- Wine is received by drinking from the common cup. Those who do not choose to drink from the common cup may cross their arms to indicate that they would prefer not to receive wine. They are also invited to touch the chalice should they wish.
- In the interests of public health, St. Bart's discourages intinction (dipping the bread into the wine). The Episcopal Church teaches that the Sacrament is fully present even when received in only one kind. If you do not wish to drink from the cup, please be assured that you are still a full partaker in the Eucharistic feast.
- If you require a gluten-free wafer, simply request one from the communion minister when the bread is offered to you.
- Those who do not wish to receive communion are still invited to receive a blessing. Please cross your arms over your chest to indicate that you would like a blessing.
- If you are unable to travel to a communion station, please alert an usher so that communion can be brought to you.

The Prayer after Communion

Presider

Let us pray.

All

O God, we thank you for giving us a vision of a new heaven and a new earth; of the river of the water of life, bright as crystal; of the tree of life, with its leaves for the healing of the nations. We thank you also for making that vision real in the sacred moments of this feast. As we have been united through the broken morsels of your bread, so may we unite others through our witness in the world. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

The Blessing

Hymn 405

Refrain

Words: Cecil Frances Alexander (1818-1895).
Music: Royal Oak, melody from The Dancing Master, 1686.

The Dismissal

Deacon Go in peace. Show God's healing love to the world.
People Thanks be to God.

Postlude

Immediately following this morning's 9 am service, we warmly welcome you to the Forum in the Great Hall.
