

DANIEL: “An Uncompromising Life”

“A Life Dependent Upon God”

Daniel 2

June 9, 2024

How did Jeremiah affect Daniel?

Jeremiah taught a way to live in a pagan culture while still honoring God.

Daniel’s interaction with the executioner teaches us:

Wisdom and discernment are developed characteristics.

Daniel’s reliance upon his friends and God teaches us:

Seek God and surround yourself with godly friends before conflict comes.

Daniel’s intercession for the pagans teaches us:

We should seek the good of everyone, even those against us.

Daniel’s dependance upon God teaches us:

Dependance on God leads to heavenly confidence.

RESPONSE QUESTIONS:

1. Read Jeremiah 27-29. How did Jeremiah teach the Israelites to live as exiles in Babylon?
2. What high pressure situation have you been in and how did you handle it? Share with someone and see if it was handled with wisdom and discernment?
3. How are wisdom and discernment developed characteristics?
4. What is the first thing that Daniel does when he is told that him, his friends, and all the other wise men are to be executed?
5. Daniel interprets the dream but he does not do so just for his friends, but also the pagan wise men. When have you done something to save someone who was against you?
6. What must our relationship with God be founded upon in order to see the faithfulness of God?