RESPONSE QUESTIONS:

1. If a decree were issued like this today, how would it affect your daily life and routine and challenge you personally?
2. What can we learn from Daniel about how to live faithfully in the midst of a culture that does not honor God?
3. If someone were to “catch you” doing something that was an important daily part of your life, what would it be and why?
4. What characteristics make Daniel stand out and allow him to ascend to high leadership positions in the kingdom? Why did this also lead to opposition?
5. Why should Christians who are serving God faithfully expect opposition? How do you handle opposition in your life?
6. How can you prepare now for when opposition will come? What instruction does Jesus give about persecution?
7. Daniel's faithfulness to God led him to disobey the earthly king. In what kinds of issues should we be prepared to serve God rather than man?
