

FAMILY CONNECTION

Use the following thoughts and questions to have a spiritual conversation as a family. Don't emphasize having the right answer, but focus on spending time discussing the Word as a family.

SCRIPTURE | Leviticus 16:1-6,15-22

SESSION SUMMARY

---

This week, we'll take a look at the way God made for His people to be forgiven of their sins in the Old Testament: animal sacrifices. But this was always meant to be temporary. Now, we depend on Jesus's sacrifice to enter God's holy presence. Here are the key themes:

- Approaching God is a privilege.
- The sacrificial system pointed to Jesus.

CONVERSATION QUESTIONS

- While we no longer make animal sacrifices for our sin, what would it look like for our family to live with hearts bent toward confession, humility, and love?
- Where in our family's life do we see the effects of sin? How can we guard ourselves better against sin?
- Why is knowing about the sacrificial system of the Old Testament vital to our family's understanding of the gospel?

FAMILY CHALLENGE

A sacrifice is something willingly given. So, when we say Jesus sacrificed Himself for us, we mean that He willingly gave up His life so we could have life in Him. But sometimes, we turn and walk in our old ways (sin) instead of walking in the life He's given us (righteousness). Last week, we talked a bit about confessing our sins. So, this week, focus on some things that are good and holy that you feel like God is calling you to do. Then, do them!
