

Prayer of Praise

Gracious and Merciful Father,

I am broken, we are broken, and we live in a broken, sin-sick world. Thank You, Father, that Your Word promises that You are close to the brokenhearted and that You save those who are crushed in spirit (Ps 34:18). You, in grace and mercy, redeem us through the saving act of Your Son, Jesus. We bow at Your feet in adoration and triumphantly praise You for this great gift of our eternal healing.

And through Your power, we are transformed and called to share our testimony of Your good news with others...to make disciples who make disciples.

By: Debby Rowe

Your Great Commission is rooted in Your Great Commandment to love. We are to humbly love other broken people and nudge them toward You. It's rather inconceivable that You would use the likes of us for Your Kingdom plan.

And again, Your Word promises that You, the God of hope would fill us with all joy and peace as we trust in You and that we would overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit (Rom 15:13). Thank You for that eternal hope, joy, and peace. I pray we grow in our faith and our trust in You and Your promises.

You are faithful!

Amen