Prayer of Thanks

By: Scott Walker

Heavenly Father,

Thank you for loving me first. Since before time began You had a plan to redeem me. You saw my need for a savior, and You did not withhold Your only Son. You sent Jesus who willingly became one of us to save me from my sinful nature.

Thank you, Jesus, for Your willingness to step down from Your high place in heaven and lower Yourself to take on human flesh. You willingly bore the most horrific punishment for my sins, though You remained blameless. You displayed the ultimate humility, courage, and love beyond comprehension to take my punishment upon Yourself.

Jesus, You perfectly fulfilled all the promises of the prophets of old, bringing hope to me who had none. Even now that You reign on high in heaven, You still walk with me through the trials of my life, lifting me up when I stumble. You continue to refine me and make me more like You each day. Jesus, I thank You and praise Your holy name for having clothed me in Your righteousness and restored peace in my relationship with my Heavenly Father. Praise the Lord!

Amen
