Prayer for Strength

By: Robin Whelan

Abba Father,

I am so grateful for the rich truth You teach us in Your Word. When the depravity of the world weighs into the core of my being, I am refreshed by the unyielding truth proclaimed in Scripture. You have warned us that trouble on earth is inherent (John 16:33), but You will never abandon us (Isaiah 43:2, 41:10), so we do not need to fear this world. Because You promise Your peace, unshakeable and immeasurable, I hand the burden of my worries to You (1 Peter 5:7, Philippians 4:6-7, Isaiah 26:3). When I grow weary, bring to my mind Your goodness and remind me of Your faithfulness (Psalms 31:19).

I know You are sovereign in all things; nothing is beyond You (Jeremiah 32:17, Mark 10:27). Therefore, I preemptively rejoice at the good work You are going to do in even the most ambiguous and dark seasons of my life. In the moments when my trust wanes, infuse me with Your strength to continue to trust in You alone (2 Chronicles 16:9). You will work ALL things for Your glory and for my good (Romans 8:28).

Amen
