

MESSAGE NOTES | NOV 5

Agrippa Gets Gripped

Acts 26:24-29

Daryl Donovan
Interim Lead Pastor

Agrippa was gripped by Paul's message, but was he gripped by the Holy Spirit to surrender his life to Jesus? It was one thing to entertain Christianity, and quite another to engage it!

1. Who I was
2. Encounter with Jesus
3. Who I am now!

Acts 26:15-18

He would testify of God's faithfulness.

He would call people to turn from darkness to God's marvelous light.

He would call them to turn from the power of Satan.

He would declare the good news of the forgiveness of sin!

Take it to HEART. Take it HOME.
Take it to the WORLD.

1. Be always ready to testify
2. Keep it short and on point
3. Leave the results up to God

[Join us in Room 207 (across from The Café) each Sunday at 10:30 a.m. to discuss the sermon.]

FRIDGE NOTES

Dec. 1

Ladies, savor an unhurried evening focused on the Christmas message, complete with a full-service dinner, festive Christmas songs, and a special presentation about how Jesus is the Promise Fulfilled. Scan the QR code to learn more and register.

Nov. 1 – Dec. 31

Spend less on things that don't matter this Christmas and give in more ways that share Jesus' love with others. Scan the QR code to learn more about the financial and tangible ways to give through Oakwood.

Nov. 12 + Dec. 3

There are two opportunities for kids to have fun with their peers this holiday season. On Nov. 12, pack Operation Christmas Child boxes, and on Dec. 3, get crafty with friends and families. Scan the QR code for more.
