Collect of the Day |

Officiant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Officiant Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life: Grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | 1 Kings 17:8-16

The word of the Lord came to Elijah, saying, "Go now to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and live there; for I have commanded a widow there to feed you." So he set out and went to Zarephath. When he came to the gate of the town, a widow was there gathering sticks; he called to her and said, "Bring me a little water in a vessel, so that I may drink." As she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, "Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand." But she said, "As the Lord your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of meal in a jar, and a little oil in a jug; I am now gathering a couple of sticks, so that I may go home and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and die." Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid; go and do as you have said; but first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterwards make something for yourself and your son. For thus says the Lord the God of Israel: The jar of meal will not be emptied and the jug of oil will not fail until the day that the Lord sends rain on the earth." She went and did as Elijah said, so that she as well as he and her household ate for many days. The jar of meal was not emptied, neither did the jug of oil fail, according to the word of the Lord that he spoke by Elijah.

Psalm 146 | 9:00 a.m. | Lauda, anima mea

The people remain seated to read the psalm.

Leader: Hallelujah! Praise the Lord, O my soul!

 I will praise the Lord as long as I live;

 I will sing praises to my God while I have my being:

People: Put not your trust in rulers, nor in any child of earth,
 for there is no help in them.

Leader: When they breathe their last, they return to earth, and in that day their thoughts perish.

People: Happy are they who have the God of Jacob for their help!
 whose hope is in the Lord their God;

Leader: Who made heaven and earth, the seas, and all that is in them;
 who keeps his promise for ever;

People: Who gives justice to those who are oppressed, and food to those who hunger.

Leader: The Lord sets the prisoners free;
 the Lord opens the eyes of the blind;
 the Lord lifts up those who are bowed down;

People: The Lord loves the righteous;
 the Lord cares for the stranger;
 he sustains the orphan and widow,
 but frustrates the way of the wicked.
The Lord shall reign for ever,
 your God, O Zion, throughout all generations.
Hallelujah!

The people remain seated for the psalm.

O Lord, thou hast searched me out, and known me:
 thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine up-rising;
 thou understandest my thoughts long before.
Thou art about my path, and about my bed:
 and spiest out all my ways
For lo, there is not a word in my tongue:
 but thou, O Lord, knowest. it altogether.
Thou hast fashioned me behind and before:
 and laid thine hand upon me.
Such knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me:
 I cannot attain unto it.
Whither shall I go then from thy Spirit:
 or whither shall I go then from thy presence?
If I climb up into heaven thou art there:
 if I go down to hell thou art there also.
If I take the wings of the morning:
 and remain in the utter-most parts. of the sea;
Even there also shall thy hand lead me:
 and thy right hand shall hold me.
If I say, Peradventure the darkness shall cover me:
 then shall my night be turned to day.
Yea, the darkness is no darkness with thee,
 but the night is as clear as the day
 the darkness and light to thee are both alike.

For my reins are thine:
 thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.
I will give thanks unto thee,
 for I am fearfully and wonderfully made:
 marvellous are thy works,
 and that my soul knoweth right well.
My bones are not hid from thee:
 though I be made secretly,
 and fashioned beneath in the earth.
Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect:
 and in thy book were all my members written.
Which day by day were fashioned:
 when as yet there was none of them.
How dear are thy counsels unto me, O God:
 O how great is the sum of them!
If I tell them, they are more in number than the sand:
 when I wake up I am present with thee.
Try me, O God, and seek the ground of my heart:
 prove me, and examine my thoughts.
Look well if there be any way of wickedness in me:
 and lead me in the way everlasting.
Glory be to the Father:
 and to the Son and. to the Holy Ghost,
As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be:
 world without end. Amen.

The Second Lesson | Hebrews 9:24-28

Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

2. My coun - try's skies are blu - er than the o - cean,
3. This is my prayer, O Lord of all earth's king - doms:

thy king - dom come; on earth thy will be done.

This is my home, the coun - try where my heart is;

The Gospel | Mark 12:38-44

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As Jesus taught, he said, "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! They devour widows' houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation."

He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon | The Rev. Nontombi Naomi Tutu

The people are seated at the preacher's invitation. A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Officiant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for Veterans |

Veterans are invited to remain standing as the people are seated.

Rector

Almighty God, today we remember all of our veterans past and present. We ask for the healing of those who have been wounded in body and soul, wounds both visible and invisible. We pray for those who have returned and those who are returning from places of conflict and live with injured bodies and traumatized spirits to receive your solace and healing. We ask that those who are unable to pray for themselves will receive the blessings of our prayers offered on their behalf. Bring peace to those places where our women and men have fought. Bless those who served in non-combatant roles. May their service continue in their lives and may that service be positive for all of us. Give us the vision to see a world in which all grow weary with war and fighting, and turn their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. These things we ask in the name of the Prince of Peace. Amen.

“The mansions of the Lord”

Nick Glennie-Smith (b. 1951)

To fallen soldiers
let us sing
Where no rockets fly
nor bullets wing
Our broken brothers let us bring
To the Mansions of the Lord

No more bleeding,
no more fight
No prayers pleading
through the night
Just divine embrace, Eternal light
In the Mansions of the Lord

Where no mothers cry and no children weep
We will stand and guard
though the angels sleep
All through the ages safely keep
The Mansions of the Lord

“Upon this rock”

John Ness Beck (1930-1987)

Upon this rock I will build my church,
And the gates of hell shall not prevail against it .
I will give thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven,
And whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven,
And whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven .
Lo, the winter is past; the rain is over and gone; the flowers appear on the earth;
The time of the singing of birds has come. Arise and come away!

The people join in singing when indicated by the choirmaster:

The Chur - ch's one foun - da - tion is Je - sus Christ her Lord;
she is his new cre - a - tion by wa - ter and the word:
from heaven he came and sought her to be his ho - ly bride;
with his own blood he bought her, and for her life he died.

Eucharistic Prayer A |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

The celebrant offers a proper preface for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus |

Setting: William Mathias

The musical score for the Sanctus is written for organ and voice. It consists of four staves. The organ part is indicated by the word 'organ' above the first and third staves. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The music is in a key with one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature. The lyrics are: 'Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, Ho-san-na in the high - est.'

The Celebrant Continues

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker and of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
