Collect of the Day |

Officiant The Lord be with you.
People And with thy spirit.

Officiant Let us pray.

O Almighty God, who hast built thy Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their doctrine, that we may be made an holy temple acceptable unto thee; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Jeremiah 28:5-9

The prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the Lord; and the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May the Lord do so; may the Lord fulfill the words that you have prophesied, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the Lord, and all the exiles. But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms. As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that the Lord has truly sent the prophet."

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Second Lesson | Romans 6:12-23

Do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.

When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel | Matthew 10:40-42

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Jesus on the Front Page | Sundays through August 16, 9:00 a.m. - 9:50 a.m., Ross Room

In this weekly Sunday morning discussion of a current news story, participants reflect on how the world of that story calls us to live as faithful people. In a nonpartisan reflection, we explore how we might be called to pray differently, think differently, or act differently in our private and public lives. We ask where God might be found in this story, as we notice signs of grace, engage the scriptures, and learn to name our lament as well as our hope. Contact Clark Lemons at clemons@emory.edu.

Third Annual Stonewall Brunch at All Saints' | Sunday, June 28, 11:30 a.m. – 2:00 p.m., Ellis Hall

All Sorts is honored to host the third annual Stonewall Brunch at All Saints', centering around the Venite's admonition to: "Come, let us Sing to the Lord; let us shout for JOY to the rock of our salvation!" Join us for a lively brunch followed by a panel featuring theologians and lay joy-bringers as we praise God from whom all blessings flow!

Registration is $15 per person (children 12 and under free). Traditional breakfast/brunch food will be served; vegetarian options are available. Registration and prepayment are online at <http://bit.ly/4fwuO95>.

The Welcome Table: Sunday Evening Worship Service and Dinner | Sundays at 5:00 p.m., Chapel & Ellis Hall

We invite you to come to The Welcome Table, a service with singing, communion and Prayer accompanied by The Welcome Table Jazz trio. A community dinner for all participants follows the service in Ellis Hall. The cost is $10 for adults and no charge for children under 18 years of age.

SUMMARY OF MAY VESTRY MEETING

The meeting opened with a prayer led by Simon, followed by a meditation offered by Briley Brisendine.

Simon reviewed vestry service assignments including expectations, meditation schedule, and meeting dates. Sheldon Taylor presented the Treasurer's Report, noting continued growth in the endowment fund. He also reported on the completion of an investment management review, which included a formal RFP process and subsequent interviews. Based on this work, a recommendation was made to transition investment management services to Northern Trust; the vestry approved this recommendation by vote.

Elizabeth Hale shared a statement outlining her and Sheffield's perspective on the future of the Egleston building, advocating for its preservation.

Wendy Little provided an update on the Lay Minister licensing process and obtained the required sign-offs from all present vestry members.

Meg Fogel gave an update on the Egleston Taskforce's progress, noting that the architectural team continues to develop a range of potential options and interventions. Current efforts are focused on refining programmatic requirements and associated cost estimates for each option.
