"The word is near you,
on your lips and in your heart."
— Romans 10:8

Processional Hymn |

"I sing the almighty power of God"

Forest Green

1. I sing the al-migh - ty power of God, that made the moun-tains rise,
2. I sing the good-ness of the Lord, that filled the earth with food;
3. There's not a plant or flower be - low, but makes thy glo - ries known; that spread the flow - ing seas a - broad and built the lof - ty skies.

he formed the crea-tures with his Word, and then pro-nounced them good.
and clouds a - rise, and tem - pests blow, by or - der from thy throne;

I sing the wis - dom that or - dained the sun to rule the day;
Lord, how thy won - ders are dis - played, wher - e'er I turn my eye, while all that bor - rows life from thee is ev - er in thy care, the moon shines full at his com-mand, and all the stars o - bey.

if I sur - vey the ground I tread, or gaze up - on the sky!
and ev - ery-where that I could be, thou, God, art pres - ent there.

The musical score is written for a three-part setting (Soprano, Alto, and Bass) in G major, 4/4 time. It consists of four systems of music, each with a vocal line and a bass line. The lyrics are arranged in three verses, with the third verse being a variation of the first. The music is simple and hymn-like, with a clear melody and harmonic support.

Music: English melody; adapt. and harm. Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748), alt.

Collect of the Day |

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Officiant Let us pray.

Grant to us, Lord, we pray, the spirit to think and do always those things that are right, that we, who cannot exist without you, may by you be enabled to live according to your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | 1 Kings 19:9-18

At Horeb, the mount of God, Elijah came to a cave, and spent the night there. Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away."

He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by." Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away." Then the Lord said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram. Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place. Whoever escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu shall kill; and whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall kill. Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him."

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Second Lesson | Romans 10:5-15

Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that “the person who does these things will live by them.” But the righteousness that comes from faith says, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’” (that is, to bring Christ down) “or ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’” (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say?

“The word is near you,

(that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, “No one who believes in him will be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!”

Reader	The Word of the Lord.
People	Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn |

"Precious Lord, take my hand"

Precious Lord

1. Pre - cious Lord take my hand, lead me on, let me
2. When my way grows drear, pre - cious Lord, lin - ger
3. When the dark - ness ap - pears and the night draws light, take my hand, pre - cious Lord, lead me on.

fall, take my hand, pre - cious Lord, lead me on.
hand, take my hand, pre - cious Lord, lead me on.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It features three systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature is B-flat major (two flats). The first system contains three verses of the hymn. The second system continues the lyrics. The third system concludes the hymn with a final line of lyrics. The piano accompaniment consists of chords and single notes, with some measures featuring a sustained bass note. The vocal line includes various note values, including half notes, quarter notes, and eighth notes, with some measures featuring a sustained note.

Music: Thomas A. Dorsey (1899-1993); arr. Horace Clarence Boyer (1935-2009)

Words: Thomas A. Dorsey

The Gospel | Matthew 14:22-33

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning he came walking toward them on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid."

Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon | The Rev. Dr. Simon J. Mainwaring

The people are seated at the preacher's invitation. A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Officiant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People | Book of Common Prayer, Form IV

The people stand or kneel for the prayers.

Intercessor Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good. We give thanks and pray for The Anglican Church of Chile, St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Milledgeville, and for our partners in ministry across the world especially in Tanzania, South Africa, Ecuador, and throughout the Anglican Communion through the work of the Compass Rose Society. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us.

When there is a new birth, "We give thanks for the birth of N."

The people may add their own thanksgivings.

Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation. We pray especially for...

The names of those who are sick are read aloud. The people may add their own petitions.

Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom. We pray especially for...

The names of those who have died are read aloud. The people may add their own petitions.

Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

The names included in the Prayers of the People come from the congregation.

If you would like to submit a prayer request or speak with a priest, please email Tracey Sage: tsage@allsaintsatlanta.org or visit our website: bit.ly/ASECPastoralCare.

Officiant

Almighty God, by your Holy Spirit, you have made us one with your saints in Heaven and on Earth: Grant that in our earthly pilgrimage we may always be supported by this fellowship of love and prayer, and know ourselves to be surrounded by their witness to your power and mercy. We ask this for the sake of Jesus Christ, in whom all our intercessions are acceptable through the Spirit, and who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

Confession |

Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbors.

Officiant and People

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Absolution |

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace |

The people stand.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The people greet one another with a sign of God's peace and are seated.

The Great Thanksgiving

Offertory Anthem |

"Now let us all praise God and sing"

Gordon Young (b. 1954)

Now let us all praise God and sing
Our great redeemer's praise;
That we may all with one accord
Our joyful voices raise.
Sing Alleluia!

All ye servants of the Lord,
Praise Him forever,
Sing Jehovah's mighty power,
Praise Him forever.
Sing of His righteousness, Praise Him forever.

Presentation Hymn |

The people stand.

"For the fruit of all creation"

Ar Hyd y Nos

For the fruit of all cre - a - tion, thanks be to God.

For the gifts to ev - ery na - tion, thanks be to God.

For the plow - ing, sow - ing, reap - ing si - lent growth while we are sleep - ing, fu - ture needs in earth's safe keep - ing, thanks be to God.

Music: Welsh melody, c. 1784, harm., Jason Kent West (b. 1958); Words: Fred Pratt Green (1903-2000), alt.

Celebrant The Lord is here.
People God's Spirit is with us.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to offer thanks and praise.

Celebrant
It is the joy of our salvation,
God of the universe,
to give you thanks through Jesus Christ.
You said, 'Let there be light';
there was light.
Your light shines on in our darkness.
For you the earth has brought forth life
in all its forms.
You have created us
to hear your Word,
to do your will
and to be fulfilled in your love.
You sent your Son to be for us
the way we need to follow and the truth we need to know.
You send your Holy Spirit
to strengthen and to guide,
to warn and to revive your Church.
Therefore, with all your witnesses who surround us on every side, countless as heaven's stars,
we praise you for our creation and our calling,
with loving and with joyful hearts as we sing:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Ho - san - na in the high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Music: American folk melody; arr. Marcia Pruner, harm. Annabel Morris Buchanan (1889-1983)

Celebrant continues

Blessed are you, most holy, in your Son;
On that night before he died
he took bread and gave you thanks.
He broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said:
Take, eat, this is my body
which is given for you;
do this to remember me.

After supper, he took the cup,
and gave you thanks.
He gave it to them and said:
Drink this. It is my blood of the new covenant, shed for you, shed for all,
to forgive sin;
do this to remember me.

Therefore with this bread and wine
we recall your goodness to us.
God of the past and present,
we your people remember your Son.

We thank you for his cross and rising again,
we take courage from his ascension;
we look for his coming in glory
and in him we give ourselves to you.

With thanksgiving and hope we say:

Glory to you, Lord Christ;
your death we show forth;
your resurrection we proclaim;
your coming we await;
Amen! Come Lord Jesus.

Send your Holy Spirit, that we who receive Christ's body
may indeed be the body of Christ, and we who share his cup
draw strength from the one true vine.
Called to follow Christ,
help us to reconcile and unite.

Called to suffer,
give us hope in our calling.
For you, the heavenly one, make all things new;
you are the beginning and the end, the last and the first,
to whom we bring our songs of everlasting praise.

Blessing, honor and glory be yours,
here and everywhere,
now and forever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant As Christ teaches us, we pray,

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
People We, who are many, are one body, for we all share the one bread.
Celebrant The gifts of God for the people of God. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, you are welcome at this table.

All are welcome at God's table. You may receive communion by taking both the bread and wine or simply taking the bread if you do not wish to receive the wine. If you wish to receive a blessing instead, you may cross your arms over your chest. Gluten free bread is available.

Fraction Anthem |

based on My Lord! What a morning

The musical score is written for a piano accompaniment in 4/4 time, featuring a treble and bass clef. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The melody is primarily in the treble clef, with a supporting bass line in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "Lamb of God, Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world, have mer - cy on us, world, grant us peace,". The score includes a first ending (1.2.) and a second ending (3.) marked with repeat signs. The music is a traditional spiritual.

Music: Traditional Spiritual

Communion Hymn |

“Nothing can trouble”

Nada te turbe

Two systems of musical notation. The first system has two staves (treble and bass clef) with lyrics: "Noth-ing can trou-ble; noth-ing can fright-en. Those who seek God shall nev-er go want-ing." The second system also has two staves with lyrics: "Noth-ing can trou-ble; noth-ing can fright-en. God a-lone fills us." The music is in a simple, hymn-like style with a key signature of one sharp (F#).

Music: Jacques Berthier (1923-1994)

Words: Taizé Community, written 1991

Communion Hymn |

“The Lord will come and not be slow”

York

Two systems of musical notation. The first system has two staves (treble and bass clef) with five numbered verses of lyrics. The second system also has two staves with the concluding lyrics. The music is in a simple, hymn-like style with a key signature of one flat (Bb).

1. The Lord will come and not be slow, his foot-steps can-not err;
 2. Truth from the earth, like to a flower, shall bud and blos-som show;
 3. Rise, God, judge thou the earth in might, this wick-ed earth re-dress;
 4. The na-tions all whom thou hast made shall come, and all shall frame
 5. For great thou art, and won-ders great by thy strong hand are done:

be-fore him right-eous-ness shall go, his roy-al har-bin-ger.
 and jus-tice, from her heaven-ly bower, look down on us be-low.
 for thou art he who shalt by right the na-tions all pos-sess.
 to bow them low be-fore thee, Lord, and glo-ri-fy thy Name.
 thou in thy ev-er-last-ing seat re-main-est God a-lone.

Music: melody from The CL Psalmes of David, 1615; adapt. The Whole Booke of Psalmes, 1621; harm, John Milton, Sr. (1563?-1647)

Words: John Milton (1608-1674), alt.

Post Communion Prayer |

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Father of all,

we give you thanks and praise,

that when we were still far off

you met us in your Son and brought us home.

Dying and living,

he declared your love,

gave us grace

and opened the gate of glory.

May we who share Christ's body live his risen life;

we who drink his cup

bring life to others;

we whom the Spirit lights

give light to the world.

Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,

so we and all your children shall be free,

and the whole earth live to praise your name. Amen.

The Blessing |

Celebrant

Go forth into the world in peace.

Be of good courage.

Hold fast to that which is good.

Render to no one evil for evil.

Strengthen the fainthearted.

Support the weak.

Help the afflicted.

Honor everyone.

Love and serve the Lord,

rejoicing in the power of the Spirit;

and the blessing of almighty God,

the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,

be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Closing Hymn |

“Now thank we all our God”

Nun danket alle Gott

1. Now thank we all our God, with heart, and hands, and voi - ces,
2. O may this boun-teous God through all our life be near us!
3. All praise and thanks to God the Fa - ther now be giv - en, who won-drous things hath done, in whom his world re - joic - es;
With ev - er - joy - ful hearts and bless - ed peace to cheer us;
the Son, and him who reigns with them in high - est hea - ven, who from our mo - ther's arms hath blessed us on our way and keep us in his grace, and guide us when per - plexed, e - ter - nal, Tri - une God, whom earth and heaven a - dore;
with count - less gifts of love, and still is ours to - day.
and free us from all ills in this world and the next.
for thus it was, is now, and shall be, e - ver - more.

Music: melody Johann Crüger (1598-1662); harm. William Henry Monk (1823-1889), after Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847)

Words: Martin Rinkart (1586-1649); tr. Catherine Winkworth (1827-1878), alt.

Jesus on the Front Page | Sundays through August 16, 9:00 a.m. - 9:50 a.m., P305

In this weekly Sunday morning discussion of a current news story, participants reflect on how the world of that story calls us to live as faithful people. In a nonpartisan reflection, we explore how we might be called to pray differently, think differently, or act differently in our private and public lives. We ask where God might be found in this story, as we notice signs of grace, engage the scriptures, and learn to name our lament as well as our hope. Contact Clark Lemons at clemons@emory.edu.

Celebrating the Ministry of the Rev. Karen Evans | Sunday, August 9, 11:00 a.m., Kennedy Courtyard

Join your fellow parishioners for a reception in the courtyard and say a heartfelt thank you to Karen Evans as she retires from her position as Parish Priest Associate at All Saints'. Karen will remain an active part of our parish's life from the pews. For more information, please contact Marcia Mayfield at mmayfield@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Acolyte Kick Off | Sunday, August 9, 11:15 a.m., Church and Tate Courtyard

Calling all new and returning acolytes as we kick off the fall worship season together! Join us after the 10:00 a.m. service on August 9 for a delicious meal, an opportunity to meet our newest acolytes, connect with your acolyte team captains, and learn more about the important role you play in worship. If you are interested in becoming an acolyte, please reach out to Luke Nolf at lnolf@allsaintsatlanta.org or 470-590-3471 or scan the QR code!

Education for Ministry Information Session | Sunday, August 9, 11:30 a.m., Ross Room

"What in the world is EfM?" was a question several people asked after a graduate from the program was recently recognized at a summer worship service. We've had hundreds of All Saints' parishioners participate in EfM, and there are two groups going on right now. Perhaps it's time for you to sign up and risk being changed? Come to the Ross Room on August 9 after the ten o'clock service and find out more. There will be graduates and current participants there to answer your questions. For more information, contact Ethel Ware Carter at ecarter@rccatl.org.

Club 45 Pool Party | Sunday, August 9, 12:30 p.m. - 2:30 p.m., offsite

Calling all 4th and 5th graders to get together for some fun and food to start the year off! Grab some lunch after church and then head over for our pool party. Drinks and snacks will be provided but bring a full water bottle with you. RSVP to Kathy Roberts at kroberts@allsaintsatlanta.org to receive pool party location.

The Welcome Table: Sunday Evening Worship Service and Dinner | Sundays at 5:00 p.m., Chapel & Ellis Hall

We invite you to come to The Welcome Table, a service with singing, communion and Prayer accompanied by The Welcome Table Jazz trio. A community dinner for all participants follows the service in Ellis Hall. The cost is $10 for adults and no charge for children under 18 years of age.

WORSHIP & MUSIC

Join the All Saints' Choir!

The All Saints' Choir is a welcoming group of adults that love to sing. Yes, it is a very talented group, but don't be afraid! This is a fabulous community in which to learn while making music alongside seasoned professionals. Rehearsals are on Wednesdays 6:30 p.m. - 8:45 p.m. and resume on August 12. The choir sings for the 9:00 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. services on Sundays, as well as Christmas, Holy Week and other special events. Contact Scott Lamlein slamlein@allsaintsatlanta.org to schedule a meeting.

ADULT FORMATION

St. Hildegard 20's & 30's Women's Chapter:

Formation Brunch Potluck

Saturday, August 22, 10:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m., offsite

Women in their 20s and 30s will gather for our monthly formation potluck on Saturday, August 22nd, this time for a brunch together. We will spend time connecting over a shared meal, followed by spiritual reflection. Please bring a dish or beverage to share. For more information and to be added to our email list, email Elizabeth Beck at ebeck.uga@gmail.com or Ani Hildebrandt at anihildebrandt93@gmail.com.

Ecuador Pilgrimage Forum

Sunday, August 23, Ellis Hall, 10:20 a.m. - 11:05 a.m.

Come hear stories and reflections from the intergenerational pilgrimage team that traveled to the Ecuador, Galápagos Islands, and partnered with local Episcopal Churches as we engaged in relational ministry experiences this past summer. Youth and adult pilgrims will share brief reflections on their journey, the ways they encountered God, and what they discovered as they sought a deeper connection with both God and our global neighbors. For more information, please contact Luke Nolfi lnolfi@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Covenant Community & All Saints'

Get to Know You Picnic

Sunday, August 30, 12:30 p.m. - 2:00 p.m., Kennedy Courtyard & Ellis Hall

Join us in the courtyard for a picnic with Covenant Community, one of our core ministries. Get to know residents, staff, and alums, and hear about the exciting events we have planned this program year to help us get to know one another better. Most residents arrive after detoxification to live in Covenant Community for six to nine months, building a new life without addiction, while learning new life skills to enable their success. For more information, contact Arjun Srinivasan at arj6950@gmail.com.

Covenant Community's

Celebration of Memories and Hope

Thursday, September 17, 6:00 p.m., Ellis Hall

All Saints' parishioners are invited to the Celebration of Memories and Hope, Covenant Community's annual signature graduation event, where we celebrate lives transformed through recovery. We will gather for food and fellowship to reflect, rejoice, and recognize the incredible stories of men and families who have completed the program and are now being inducted as Men of Hope. Admission is free but please register at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/celebration-of-memories-hope-2026-tickets-1994947011213>.

We're excited to get to know you, and to welcome you to this amazing community. You can use this QR code to help us stay in touch, or if you'd prefer pen and paper, you can fill out one of the visitor cards in the back of the pew and place it in the offering plate or hand it to a staff member.

Freedom Writers Prison Ministry and Threads: Looking for Gently Used Women's Clothing

Summer is here and MAC needs extra help. With children The All Saints' Freedom Writers are looking for gently used clothing to donate to women who have been transferred from Georgia prisons to transitional centers in anticipation of their parole and release. They have a particular need for dress pants, work pants (like jeans), and tee shirts. (Please avoid donating high heels, boots, open toe shoes, tank tops, leggings, and jeans with holes in them). Please drop off your donations in the Threads bin at the bottom of the glass stairwell. If you need someone to pick up your donations at your home, please contact Ellen Porter at ellenp066@gmail.com.

Midtown Assistance Center

MAC is grateful for All Saints' continuous support! We are currently looking for donations of food, clothing, and hygiene items. Please consider volunteering with us as well. If you'd like more information on volunteering or donating, please reach out to mac@midtownassistancecenter.org.

Volunteer Opportunity with Respite Care Atlanta

Respite Care Atlanta, a daycare for people with dementia, is looking for volunteers. The program is Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. and offers very flexible participation. It is a joyful, happy place for its "members" and offers respite for their caregivers. Come see what it's all about! Contact Susan Virgin for more information at sdv20@bellsouth.net.

Threads Welcomes Families For Shopping

Threads welcomes families for in store shopping every Thursday and Saturday, 10 a.m.–1 p.m. We offer more than clothing — we offer dignity, comfort, and hope. If you'd like to help, your presence makes a real difference. Scan the QR code to volunteer!

There are many ways that you can help Threads Kids

- Drop off gently worn, clean children's clothes
- Shop our Amazon wish list: bit.ly/ASECThreadsWishlist
- Make a financial gift — choose Threads Donation in the drop-down box at this QR:

Current Needs: Boys cotton boxer brief underwear sizes—small, medium, large and extra large; Girls cotton brief panties sizes—small medium, large and extra-large.

Thank you for caring.
