The Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost August 9, 2026

Collect of the Day |

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Officiant Let us pray.

Grant to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right, that we, who cannot exist without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | 1 Kings 19:9-18

At Horeb, the mount of God, Elijah came to a cave, and spent the night there. Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away."

He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by." Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away." Then the Lord said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram. Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place. Whoever escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu shall kill; and whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall kill. Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him."

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Second Lesson | Romans 10:5-15

Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that “the person who does these things will live by them.” But the righteousness that comes from faith says, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’” (that is, to bring Christ down) “or ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’” (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say?

“The word is near you,
on your lips and in your heart”

(that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, “No one who believes in him will be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!”

People	Thanks be to God.

The Gospel | Matthew 14:22-33

Gospeler	The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.
People	Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning he came walking toward them on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, “It is a ghost!” And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, “Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid.”

Peter answered him, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.” He said, “Come.” So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, “Lord, save me!” Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, “You of little faith, why did you doubt?” When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”

Gospeler	The Gospel of the Lord.
People	Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Jesus on the Front Page | Sundays through August 16, 9:00 a.m. - 9:50 a.m., P305

In this weekly Sunday morning discussion of a current news story, participants reflect on how the world of that story calls us to live as faithful people. In a nonpartisan reflection, we explore how we might be called to pray differently, think differently, or act differently in our private and public lives. We ask where God might be found in this story, as we notice signs of grace, engage the scriptures, and learn to name our lament as well as our hope. Contact Clark Lemons at clemons@emory.edu.

Celebrating the Ministry of the Rev. Karen Evans | Sunday, August 9, 11:00 a.m., Kennedy Courtyard

Join your fellow parishioners for a reception in the courtyard and say a heartfelt thank you to Karen Evans as she retires from her position as Parish Priest Associate at All Saints'. Karen will remain an active part of our parish's life from the pews. For more information, please contact Marcia Mayfield at mmayfield@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Acolyte Kick Off | Sunday, August 9, 11:15 a.m., Church and Tate Courtyard

Calling all new and returning acolytes as we kick off the fall worship season together! Join us after the 10:00 a.m. service on August 9 for a delicious meal, an opportunity to meet our newest acolytes, connect with your acolyte team captains, and learn more about the important role you play in worship. If you are interested in becoming an acolyte, please reach out to Luke Nolf at lnolf@allsaintsatlanta.org or 470-590-3471 or scan the QR code!

Education for Ministry Information Session | Sunday, August 9, 11:30 a.m., Ross Room

"What in the world is EfM?" was a question several people asked after a graduate from the program was recently recognized at a summer worship service. We've had hundreds of All Saints' parishioners participate in EfM, and there are two groups going on right now. Perhaps it's time for you to sign up and risk being changed? Come to the Ross Room on August 9 after the ten o'clock service and find out more. There will be graduates and current participants there to answer your questions. For more information, contact Ethel Ware Carter at ecarter@rccatl.org.

Club 45 Pool Party | Sunday, August 9, 12:30 p.m. - 2:30 p.m., offsite

Calling all 4th and 5th graders to get together for some fun and food to start the year off! Grab some lunch after church and then head over for our pool party. Drinks and snacks will be provided but bring a full water bottle with you. RSVP to Kathy Roberts at kroberts@allsaintsatlanta.org to receive pool party location.

The Welcome Table: Sunday Evening Worship Service and Dinner | Sundays at 5:00 p.m., Chapel & Ellis Hall

We invite you to come to The Welcome Table, a service with singing, communion and Prayer accompanied by The Welcome Table Jazz trio. A community dinner for all participants follows the service in Ellis Hall. The cost is $10 for adults and no charge for children under 18 years of age.

WORSHIP & MUSIC

Join the All Saints' Choir!

The All Saints' Choir is a welcoming group of adults that love to sing. Yes, it is a very talented group, but don't be afraid! This is a fabulous community in which to learn while making music alongside seasoned professionals. Rehearsals are on Wednesdays 6:30 p.m. - 8:45 p.m. and resume on August 12. The choir sings for the 9:00 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. services on Sundays, as well as Christmas, Holy Week and other special events. Contact Scott Lamlein slamlein@allsaintsatlanta.org to schedule a meeting.

ADULT FORMATION

St. Hildegard 20's & 30's Women's Chapter:

Formation Brunch Potluck

Saturday, August 22, 10:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m., offsite

Women in their 20s and 30s will gather for our monthly formation potluck on Saturday, August 22nd, this time for a brunch together. We will spend time connecting over a shared meal, followed by spiritual reflection. Please bring a dish or beverage to share. For more information and to be added to our email list, email Elizabeth Beck at ebeck.uga@gmail.com or Ani Hildebrandt at anihildebrandt93@gmail.com.

Ecuador Pilgrimage Forum

Sunday, August 23, Ellis Hall, 10:20 a.m. - 11:05 a.m.

Come hear stories and reflections from the intergenerational pilgrimage team that traveled to the Ecuador, Galápagos Islands, and partnered with local Episcopal Churches as we engaged in relational ministry experiences this past summer. Youth and adult pilgrims will share brief reflections on their journey, the ways they encountered God, and what they discovered as they sought a deeper connection with both God and our global neighbors. For more information, please contact Luke Nolfi lnolfi@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Covenant Community & All Saints'

Get to Know You Picnic

Sunday, August 30, 12:30 p.m. - 2:00 p.m., Kennedy Courtyard & Ellis Hall

Join us in the courtyard for a picnic with Covenant Community, one of our core ministries. Get to know residents, staff, and alums, and hear about the exciting events we have planned this program year to help us get to know one another better. Most residents arrive after detoxification to live in Covenant Community for six to nine months, building a new life without addiction, while learning new life skills to enable their success. For more information, contact Arjun Srinivasan at arj6950@gmail.com.

Covenant Community's

Celebration of Memories and Hope

Thursday, September 17, 6:00 p.m., Ellis Hall

All Saints' parishioners are invited to the Celebration of Memories and Hope, Covenant Community's annual signature graduation event, where we celebrate lives transformed through recovery. We will gather for food and fellowship to reflect, rejoice, and recognize the incredible stories of men and families who have completed the program and are now being inducted as Men of Hope. Admission is free but please register at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/celebration-of-memories-hope-2026-tickets-1994947011213>.

We're excited to get to know you, and to welcome you to this amazing community. You can use this QR code to help us stay in touch, or if you'd prefer pen and paper, you can fill out one of the visitor cards in the back of the pew and place it in the offering plate or hand it to a staff member.

Freedom Writers Prison Ministry and Threads: Looking for Gently Used Women's Clothing

Summer is here and MAC needs extra help. With children The All Saints' Freedom Writers are looking for gently used clothing to donate to women who have been transferred from Georgia prisons to transitional centers in anticipation of their parole and release. They have a particular need for dress pants, work pants (like jeans), and tee shirts. (Please avoid donating high heels, boots, open toe shoes, tank tops, leggings, and jeans with holes in them). Please drop off your donations in the Threads bin at the bottom of the glass stairwell. If you need someone to pick up your donations at your home, please contact Ellen Porter at ellenp066@gmail.com.

Midtown Assistance Center

MAC is grateful for All Saints' continuous support! We are currently looking for donations of food, clothing, and hygiene items. Please consider volunteering with us as well. If you'd like more information on volunteering or donating, please reach out to mac@midtownassistancecenter.org.

Volunteer Opportunity with Respite Care Atlanta

Respite Care Atlanta, a daycare for people with dementia, is looking for volunteers. The program is Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. and offers very flexible participation. It is a joyful, happy place for its "members" and offers respite for their caregivers. Come see what it's all about! Contact Susan Virgin for more information at sdv20@bellsouth.net.

Threads Welcomes Families For Shopping

Threads welcomes families for in store shopping every Thursday and Saturday, 10 a.m.–1 p.m. We offer more than clothing — we offer dignity, comfort, and hope. If you'd like to help, your presence makes a real difference. Scan the QR code to volunteer!

There are many ways that you can help Threads Kids

- Drop off gently worn, clean children's clothes
- Shop our Amazon wish list: bit.ly/ASECThreadsWishlist
- Make a financial gift — choose Threads Donation in the drop-down box at this QR:

Current Needs: Boys cotton boxer brief underwear sizes-small, medium, large and extra large; Girls cotton brief panties sizes-small medium, large and extra-large.

Thank you for caring.
