Officiant Praying together,

Officiant and People

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song of the Lamb | Dignus es | 11:15 a.m.

Verses sung by the choir.

For you created every thing that is,
and by your will they were created and have their being; Refrain

And yours by right, O Lamb that was slain, for with your blood you have redeemed for God,
From every family, language, people, and nation,
a kingdom of priests to serve our God. Refrain

And so, to him who sits upon the throne, and to Christ the Lamb,
Be worship and praise, dominion and splendor, for ever and for evermore. Refrain

Music: Benjamin Straley (b. 1986)

Collect of the Day |

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Officiant Let us pray.

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: Graft in our hearts the love of your Name; increase in us true religion; nourish us with all goodness; and bring forth in us the fruit of good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Jeremiah 15:15-21

O Lord, you know;
remember me and visit me,
and bring down retribution for me on my persecutors.

In your forbearance do not take me away;
know that on your account I suffer insult.

Your words were found, and I ate them, and your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart;

for I am called by your name,
O Lord, God of hosts.

I did not sit in the company of merry-makers,
nor did I rejoice;
under the weight of your hand I sat alone,
for you had filled me with indignation.

Why is my pain unceasing,
my wound incurable,
refusing to be healed?

Truly, you are to me like a deceitful brook, like waters that fail.

Therefore, thus says the Lord:

If you turn back, I will take you back, and you shall stand before me.

If you utter what is precious, and not what is worthless, you shall serve as my mouth.

It is they who will turn to you,
not you who will turn to them.

And I will make you to this people a fortified wall of bronze;

they will fight against you,
but they shall not prevail over you,

for I am with you to save you and deliver you, says the Lord.

I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn | 11:15 a.m.

“Judge eternal, throned in splendor”

Komm, o komm, du Geist des Lebens

1. Judge e - ter - nal, throned in splen - dor, Lord of lords and King of kings,
2. Still the wea - ry folk are pin - ing for the hour that brings re - lease,
3. Crown, O God, thine own en - deav - or; cleave our dark - ness with thy sword; with thy liv - ing fire of judg - ment purge this land of bit - ter things;

and the ci - ty's crowd - ed clang - or cries a - loud for sin to cease;
feed all those who do not know thee with the rich - ness of thy word;

so - lace all its wide do - min - ion with the heal - ing of thy wings.
and the home - steads and the wood - lands plead in si - lence for their peace.
cleanse the bo - dy of this na - tion through the glo - ry of the Lord.

Words: Henry Scott Holland (1847-1918), alt.

The Second Lesson | Romans 12:9-21

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, “Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord.” No, “if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads.” Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel | Matthew 16:21-28

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you." But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things."

Then Jesus told his disciples, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life?"

"For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon | The Rev. Trey Phillips

The people are seated at the preacher's invitation. A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Officiant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Deep river,
My home is over Jordan.
Deep river, Lord,

“O God beyond all praising”

Thaxted

The musical score is written for a single voice part on a treble clef staff with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below the notes. The lyrics are: "O God be - yond all prais - ing, we wor - ship you to - day and sing the love a - ma - zing that songs can - not re - pay; for we can on - ly won - der at ev' - ry gift you send, at bless - ings with - out num - ber and mer - cies with - out end: we lift our hearts be - fore you and wait up - on your word, we hon - or and a - dore you, our great and migh - ty Lord." The score ends with a double bar line.

O God be - yond all prais - ing, we wor - ship you to - day and sing the love a - ma - zing that songs can - not re - pay; for we can on - ly won - der at ev' - ry gift you send,
at bless - ings with - out num - ber and mer - cies with - out end:
we lift our hearts be - fore you and wait up - on your word, we hon - or and a - dore you, our great and migh - ty Lord.

Music: Gustav T. Holst (1874-1934)

Words: Michael Perry (1942-1996)

Eucharistic Prayer A |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

The celebrant offers a proper preface for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus |

Jefferson C. McConnaughey (b. 1952)

organ

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,
God of pow'r and might, Heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho-san-na, ho-san-na, ho-san-na in the high - est
Bless-ed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord.
Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker and of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

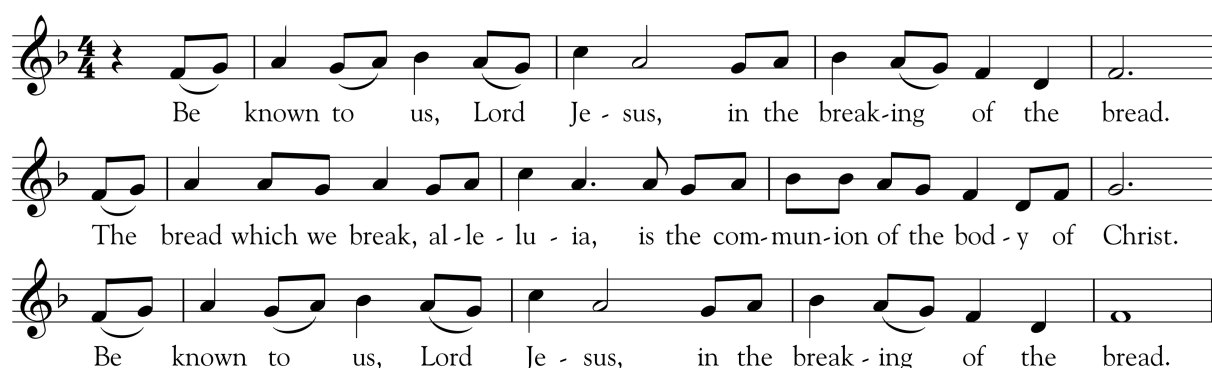

Celebrant The gifts of God for the people of God. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, you are welcome at this table.

All are welcome at God's table. You may receive communion by taking both the bread and wine or simply taking the bread if you do not wish to receive the wine. If you wish to receive a blessing instead, you may cross your arms over your chest. Gluten free bread is available.

Healing prayers are offered in the chapel during communion.

Communion Anthem |

“Lord, lead us still”

Johannes Brahms (1833-1897)

Along the varied paths of life,
Through hours of joy and sorrow keen,
In grim temptation's mortal strife,
In doubt or confidence serene,
Lord, lead us still, O lead us still.

Through all the changes of the years,
Whate'er of good or ill betide,
In laughter gay or bitter tears,
O keep us ever at Thy side;
Lord, lead us still, O lead us still.

Helen A. Dickinson

And when at last the tale is told,
The victory won by Thy good grace,
May we Thy glory, Lord, behold,
In that blest Homeland see Thy face;
Lord, lead us still, O lead us still.

Sunday, August 30, 12:30 p.m. - 2:00 p.m., Kennedy Courtyard & Ellis Hall

Join us in the courtyard for a picnic with Covenant Community, one of our core ministries. Get to know residents, staff, and alums, and hear about the exciting events we have planned this program year to help us get to know one another better. Most residents arrive after detoxification to live in Covenant Community for six to nine months, building a new life without addiction, while learning new life skills to enable their success. For more information, contact Arjun Srinivasan at arj6950@gmail.com.

Jesus on the Front Page | Sundays, 10:20 a.m. - 11:05 a.m., P305

In this weekly Sunday morning discussion of a current news story, participants reflect on how the world of that story calls us to live as faithful people. In a nonpartisan reflection, we explore how we might be called to pray differently, think differently, or act differently in our private and public lives. We ask where God might be found in this story, as we notice signs of grace, engage the scriptures, and learn to name our lament as well as our hope. Contact Clark Lemons at clemons@emory.edu.

The Welcome Table: Sunday Evening Worship Service and Dinner | Sundays at 5:00 p.m., Chapel & Ellis Hall

We invite you to come to The Welcome Table, a service with singing, communion and Prayer accompanied by The Welcome Table Jazz trio. A community dinner for all participants follows the service in Ellis Hall. The cost is $10 for adults and no charge for children under 18 years of age.

SUMMARY OF JUNE VESTRY MEETING

The meeting opened with a prayer led by Simon, followed by a meditation offered by Louise Geddes.

Simon reviewed vestry service assignments including expectations, meditation schedule, and meeting dates. Sheldon Taylor reported that church finances remain on budget overall, with higher-than-expected Building and Grounds expenses due to HVAC, roof, and other facility repairs. The Endowment posted healthy gains early in the second quarter, and the church is awaiting the insurance assessment related to damage at Egleston Hall.

Simon updated the Vestry on staff and program relocations following flooding at Egleston Hall, with staff temporarily distributed across several campus buildings. Meg Fogel reported that Perkins&Will has issued three conceptual pricing packages to contractors for review as part of the Egleston project. Sheldon also shared updates from the Block Development Steering Committee, including new Sunday parking arrangements at The Varsity and ongoing communications efforts to keep the congregation informed.

The meeting concluded with a tour of Covenant Community attended by all members present.
