The Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost October 11, 2026

Collect of the Day |

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Officiant Let us pray.

Lord, we pray thee that thy grace may always precede and follow us, and make us continually to be given to all good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Isaiah 25:1-9

O Lord, you are my God;
I will exalt you, I will praise your name;
for you have done wonderful things,
plans formed of old, faithful and sure.
For you have made the city a heap,
the fortified city a ruin;
the palace of aliens is a city no more,
it will never be rebuilt.
Therefore strong peoples will glorify you;
cities of ruthless nations will fear you.
For you have been a refuge to the poor,
a refuge to the needy in their distress,
a shelter from the rainstorm and a shade from the heat.
When the blast of the ruthless was like a winter rainstorm,
the noise of aliens like heat in a dry place,
you subdued the heat with the shade of clouds;
the song of the ruthless was stilled.
On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples
a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines,
of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.
And he will destroy on this mountain
the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;
he will swallow up death forever.
Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces,
and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
for the Lord has spoken.

It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.
This is the Lord for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Second Lesson | Philippians 4:1-9

My brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel | Matthew 22:1-14

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Once more Jesus spoke to the people in parables, saying: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, 'Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.' But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, 'The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.' Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

“But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?’ And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, ‘Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ For many are called, but few are chosen.”

ANNOUNCEMENT: The livestreams of our Sunday 9:00 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. worship services are available at allsaintsatlanta.org/live and on youtube.com/@AllSaintsATL. Feel free to join us via your preferred platform and be sure to give us a follow!

NURSERY: Our nursery is open for children, ages birth through Pre-K, 8:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

PARKING: When parking on the All Saints' block is full, overflow parking is available at the following locations.

- Varsity: Look for All Saints' sandwich board signs that say parking. Go straight into lot from Ponce.
- 670 Spring St Lot: Go past Ponce on West Peachtree, take a left on 3rd Ave, then take another left on Spring. Look for All Saints' sandwich board signs that say parking.
- The Bank of America lot is still an option. Enter from North Ave. Get a validation ticket upon entry. Please request an additional validation ticket from an usher in the church narthex upon arrival or exit. Use both validation tickets upon exiting the Bank of America parking deck to park free of charge.
- On Sundays, street parking is free (leave new bike lane open).

March in the Pride Parade | Sunday, October 11, 12:30 p.m., meet in Courtyard

Join fellow parishioners and march in this year's Pride parade! Those who wish to march should meet at the church steps at 12:30 p.m. following the 11:15 a.m. service. Our 'God Takes Pride In You' t-shirts will be available to purchase to help us spread our message of inclusion to the city. For more information, please contact Stephen Causby: swcausby@gmail.com.

Saying a fond au revoir to Naomi Tutu | Sunday, October 11, 10:20 a.m., Ellis Hall

Join your fellow parishioners as we give thanks for the ministry of Naomi Tutu and the many ways she has blessed our All Saints' community. As Naomi prepares to return home to South Africa, we will gather in gratitude to celebrate her time among us and wish her Godspeed on the journey ahead. For more information please contact Marcia Mayfield: mmayfield@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Mindfully Made: The Mental Health Initiative's Formation Series |

Sundays, October 11, 18 & November 8, 10:20 a.m. - 11:05 a.m., Chapel

Join us for a Sunday formation series in-between the services, sponsored by our new, lay led, Mental Health Initiative. For ten Sundays, half in the fall and half in the spring, we will gather to hear parishioners who are experts in the mental health field speak on topics like holding space through compassionate listening, navigating anxiety, understanding depression, and parenting children with mental health challenges. These sessions are for those needing care and those giving care, which means they are for us all — since we all have experienced being cared for and being caregivers at different times in our lives. Contact Mary Virginia Coffman mvwcoffman@gmail.com.

Jesus on the Front Page | Sundays, 10:20 a.m. - 11:05 a.m., P305

In this weekly Sunday morning discussion of a current news story, participants reflect on how the world of that story calls us to live as faithful people. In a nonpartisan reflection, we explore how we might be called to pray differently, think differently, or act differently in our private and public lives. We ask where God might be found in this story, as we notice signs of grace, engage the scriptures, and learn to name our lament as well as our hope. Contact Clark Lemons at clemons@emory.edu.

The Welcome Table: Sunday Evening Worship Service and Dinner | Sundays at 5:00 p.m., Chapel & Ellis Hall

We invite you to come to The Welcome Table, a service with singing, communion and Prayer accompanied by The Welcome Table Jazz trio. A community dinner for all participants follows the service in Ellis Hall. The cost is $10 for adults and no charge for children under 18 years of age.

ADULT FORMATION

Egleston Ministry Project Feedback

Thank you to everyone who has contributed such a rich array of input and questions from the feedback sessions we have held at church, at Canterbury Court, in people's homes, with parents at the Pritchett Center, and by email. We have two more sessions left following the 9:00am service, beginning at 10:20am in the Ross Room on Sundays October 11 and 18. If you are not able to make either of those sessions and would like to offer feedback on a one-on-one basis or as a group please reach out to Dan Reece who can help set that up: danreese@jdklote.com.

Great Hymns of the Faith –

a Midweek Study with Scott Lamlein

Wednesdays in October, 11:00 a.m. - 12 p.m.,

Tate Hall Music Suite

Join our Director of Music for a time to learn a little more about the hymns and songs we sing in worship. We'll look ahead to the coming Sunday's music, dig into some history and theology, talk about our personal connection to the music, and even sing! Come to any or all of the sessions and enjoy this relaxed time to consider our music. Questions?

Email Scott at slamlein@allsaintsatlanta.org.

The School of the Spirit:

Spiritual Gifts for the Common Good

Wednesdays September 30, October 7, 14, 21, 6:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m., Hybrid: P306 or Zoom

Join us for a 4-week course on spiritual gifts. We'll discuss what the Apostle Paul means by the term 'spiritual gifts.' We'll discern together what our spiritual gifts may be. And we'll reflect on how we may best steward them at All Saints' and beyond. No prerequisites required! Each course meets in a hybrid format (in person and on Zoom) on Wednesday evenings, from 6:30-8:00 pm. Email Jenny McBride for the Zoom link and handout at jmcbride@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Novel Theology: A Month in the Country by J.L. Carr

Wednesday, October 21, 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m., Pritchett Center & Zoom

Please join Novel Theology for a discussion of J.L. Carr's poetic novella, A Month in the Country, which reflects on restoration, the power of art, and the passage of time. We will meet in the 7th grade classroom in the Youth Attic (Pritchett Center) as well as on Zoom. For more information, contact Laura Trott at Lmtrott@gmail.com.

The Journey Bible Study

We are studying in the Second Book of Kings about the history of the Kingdom of Judah until it is conquered and its people are taken into exile in Babylon. Along the way we will look at the prophets who brought the word of God to the times, especially Jeremiah. The Journey meets via Zoom every Monday at 11:00 a.m. For more information or to join the class email Karen Evans at karenpatriciaevans@gmail.com.

SUMMARY OF AUGUST VESTRY MEETING

The Vestry convened on Wednesday, August 26, 2026, at 4:30 PM.

The meeting was called to order by Briley and opened with prayer by Simon, followed by a meditation offered by Holly Stevens. The Vestry approved the June 2026 meeting minutes, confirmed September 23, 2026, as the date of the next meeting, and noted the upcoming Vestry retreat at Rock Eagle on September 11-12.

Treasurer Sheldon Taylor provided a financial update, reviewing ongoing Building & Grounds maintenance efforts, the transition to a new endowment advisor, and audit findings. Danny Johnson outlined several significant capital improvement projects, including building communications systems, elevator modernization, and asbestos abatement for Egleston, leading to Vestry approval of $1.3 million in funding from the Special Purpose Fund, as well as approval of the housing allowance for the Rev. Trey Philips.

Additional reports included progress on the 2026 "Called Together" Canvass campaign, the Vestry's approval of Licensed Lay Ministry candidate Guru Brandes-Swamy, and updates on recent staff restructuring and ongoing campus improvement initiatives. The Rev. Trey Philips was formally introduced as the new Associate Rector and shared his anticipated areas of ministry leadership. Meg Fogel provided an update on the Egleston development effort, including design progress update, parish engagement opportunities, and forthcoming capital campaign milestones.

The meeting concluded with a closing prayer offered by Simon.
