Welcome

Caleb Cooke, Pastoral Resident

†Call to Worship (responsive)

Come to worship this day.
Bring with you all your joys and sorrows.

Jesus will offer hope.

Come to worship this day believing in the power of God through Jesus Christ.

Jesus will bring us healing.

Come to worship this day feeling the presence of God.

Jesus will teach us new ways to live. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Sarah Buckallew

Mark 1:21-28

They went to Capernaum, and when the Sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.” But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be quiet and come out of him!” And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, “What is this? A new teaching—with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.” At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

The Gospel of our Lord.

Praise be to Christ.

Lean Back

Litany for the Kin-dom of God

Pastor Brittany McDonald Null

God of peace and love,

Bring to us a new awareness of your kin-dom at work in the world.

Grant that we may see and understand the small and unassuming things,
which take patience and attention to notice:

A seed.

Yeast in bread

Treasure buried in a field

A net cast into water

A baby lying in a manger.

We acknowledge that we mostly miss the signs when they are not flashy or earth-shaking,

But that your kin-dom is all around us.

We acknowledge that Christ came to exhibit neither wealth
nor political power,

But self-sacrificing love.

We acknowledge that the progress of the good work we do may be imperceptible to us,

And that our success is in our obedience to you.

We welcome your kin-dom, in the world and in our hearts.

We seek your kin-dom, trusting that we will find it.

We anticipate your kin-dom,

Working toward peace

Providing for the poor

Healing the sick

Loving our enemies.

We trust in your love to provide for us in our seeking.

Whether your spirit comes to us as a wind or a whisper,

May we know your presence and be useful in your kin-dom work.

Amen.

Worship Notes

Meet Our Guest Preacher, CJ Duffie

Cornbread fed and Spirit-led, Christopher (CJ) Duffie lives in the freedom of Christ. Discerning the call of God as a teenager, CJ has devoted his life to the study of religion and the Church. CJ's theological interest concentrates on the intersection of Liberation Theology, the lived Black experience and proclamation. His motivation for pursuing liberation in all areas of life is grounded in Galatians 5:1, "It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery".

CJ earned a Bachelor of Arts in Religion from Faith International University, Tacoma, WA. In May, CJ earned a Master of Divinity from Central Baptist Theological Seminary, Shawnee Mission, KS. CJ is a postulant in the Diocese of West Missouri currently studying at Bishop Kemper School for Ministry in the Anglican Studies program. CJ is also the current president of the Union of Black Episcopalians Chapter of the Diocese of West Missouri.

CJ is married to the love of his life, Darren. CJ and Darren currently reside in the Kansas City Metro with their pet parakeets, Beverly, Xavier, II, Mary Ann, and St. John of Chrysostom. CJ is a member of St. Augustine's Episcopal Church, Kansas City, MO and an active member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Incorporate. When CJ is not working or studying, enjoys spending time with his husband, reading, and grilling and smoking meats of all kinds.

Visitors

If you are visiting, we are so glad to have you with us! If you would like to receive more information about First Baptist and our ministries, you can fill out a connection card at the welcome table, scan the QR code in the bulletin, or visit our website at fbc-columbia.org/connect

Join Chancel Bells!

The Chancel Bells are starting up again for the new year on Wednesday, January 17 at 6:30 pm. If you are interested in joining this wonderful group please let Handbell Director Noah Hartsfield know. Rehearsals are Wednesday evenings from 6:30 pm to 7:30 pm (nursery care is available) and open to friends and musicians of all abilities! Whether you are 10 years old or 110 years old; and regardless of whether you've ever rung a handbell - we have a spot for you! Can't read music, no problem! We can teach you and you are only responsible for two notes! If you have questions or are interested in ringing, please reach out to Noah at nhartsfield2010@gmail.com.

Brunch Worship February 4

Our next Brunch Worship will be held on February 4. Immediately following Brunch Worship, the self-study Committee will present a summary of the Pastor Skills, Characteristics, and Tasks sections of the survey and conversations will focus on the skills and responsibilities of our next Senior Pastor.

200th Anniversary Celebration History Book

We are publishing a hard-bound, archival-quality book to preserve and document our history. This book is 869 pages, including 26 color photos and the 2018 and 2023 churchwide photos. The book will be published early in 2024. Personal copies are available for $85 each. You can order a book using the QR code. A sample copy is on display in the History Room. Please email Ken Hammann if you have questions about the book at krhammann@gmail.com.

First Kids Pancake Party - February 13

The Pancake Party is back for another year of celebrating Shrove Tuesday! Kids and their families are invited to the Fellowship Hall on February 13 for a Pancake Party at 6 pm. During our Pancake Party, kids will hear a little bit about what Lent is, prepare for the season, and learn some faith activities your family can use all season long. The Youth will be making the pancakes and serving all the goods. RSVP is required by February 6 to ensure we have all the necessary supplies. To register, visit <http://bit.ly/FKMpancakes> or email Pastor Brittany!

Unidiversity Youth Camp - July 8-12

Unidiversity is a week-long Christian summer camp for teenagers. Camp will be held July 8-12, 2024 on the campus of Maryville College just outside Knoxville, TN. Our group will travel sometime on the weekend before- details TBD. For more information about the camp or this year's theme, see the Unidiversity website: <https://www.unidiversity.org/>

The cost of the camp is $300/person with the first deposit of $50 due on February 4. Please note: scholarships are available. To pay the deposit, you can bring a check to the church office or pay online using the QR code:

Lent 2024 - Wandering Heart

Lent is the 40 days leading up to Easter. This season is often one of reflection and preparation. As our worship planning team was reflecting on a theme, we felt particularly drawn to Sanctified Art's series "Wandering Heart." Here is their description:

This Lent, we are focusing on the life and faith of one of Jesus' most famous disciples. In Peter, we see a person who is both steadfast and unsteady, a dear friend and a betrayer, a follower and a wanderer. In Peter, we often see ourselves. By following Peter's journey, we watch the story of Jesus unfold through the eyes of a very normal human trying to figure it all out—just like us.

In this series, we want to affirm that faith is a constant journey of steadfast pursuit, one that ebbs and flows. We want to affirm the ways Peter keeps going: he drops his nets, he walks on water, he runs to the empty tomb, he swims to the shore to meet the risen Christ. He keeps searching and yearning and loving, even after missteps or mistakes. Ultimately, in Peter's story, we are reminded that God loves imperfect people—in fact, time and again, that's precisely who God claims and calls.

At First Baptist, Lent will begin at 6 pm on February 14 in the Fellowship Hall for our Ash Wednesday service. As we begin the season, we will turn inward and tune our hearts to sing God's grace. The service will provide space to reflect on our intentions for the season and conclude with the imposition of ashes.

We will have a Lenten devotional available beginning February 4 that connects with our theme and can accompany us throughout the season. This Lent, as we wander, may we rest in streams of mercy, never ceasing.

First Baptist Game Nights Start February 23
