Call to Worship (responsive)

Pastor Kristin McAtee

Gather us in, Lord, and hear our prayers.

We have come to this place in need for healing and hope.

Gather us in, Lord, and heal our spirits.

We come here seeking guidance and strength.

Gather us in, Lord, and open our hearts to receive your word.

Open our hearts, our spirits, our souls to comprehend your word and follow you faithfully. Amen.

Psalm 82

God takes his stand in the divine council;
he gives judgment among the gods:
“How long will you judge unjustly
by granting favor to the wicked?
Give justice to the lowly and the orphan;
maintain the right of the poor and the destitute!
Rescue the lowly and the needy.
Deliver them from the power of the wicked!
They don’t know; they don’t understand;
they wander around in the dark.
All the earth’s foundations shake.
I hereby declare, “You are gods,
children of the Most High—all of you!
But you will die like mortals;
you will fall down like any prince.”
Rise up, God! Judge the earth
because you hold all nations in your possession!

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

God Who Grieves with Us, as we try to comprehend the destruction that flooding causes to people's lives, our hearts grieve. We ask for you to be with all who have suffered loss in floods in Texas, New Mexico, and around the globe. For those bearing the unbearable loss of children, parents, family, and friends, we pray that they may find support as they grieve. May Your comfort surround them. For those who have lost homes, we pray for shelter and community. For those who have lost homes and livelihoods, we ask for financial security.

Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Spirit have mercy.

God Who Restores, we pray you give strength to all those who are providing support to those affected by floods. For governments, for emergency services, for faith leaders and for neighbors. Give them all the endurance, resilience and compassion they need. We pray especially for those who sacrificially help others while also coping with their own loss.

Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Spirit have mercy.

Lord, we pray for world leaders as they decide how to respond. We pray that you stir hearts into generosity. We pray that our leaders will know humility and courage as they wrestle with the climate crisis that has contributed to flooding.

Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Spirit have mercy.

God of Nature, You who has mastered the chaos and the storm, who shaped this earth, by your power and might may waters subside quickly and the land be restored.

Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Spirit have mercy.

Amen.

Scripture Reading

Amos 7:7-17

This is what the LORD showed me: The LORD was standing by a wall, with a plumb line in his hand. The LORD said to me, “Amos, what do you see?”
“A plumb line,” I said.

Then the LORD said,
“See, I am setting a plumb line
in the middle of my people Israel.
I will never again forgive them.
The shrines of Isaac will be made desolate,
and the holy places of Israel will be laid waste,
and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.”

Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, reported to Israel’s King Jeroboam, “Amos has plotted against you within the house of Israel. The land isn’t able to cope with everything that he is saying. Amos has said, ‘Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will be forced out of its land.’”

Amaziah said to Amos, “You who see things, go, run away to the land of Judah, eat your bread there, and prophesy there; but never again prophesy at Bethel, for it is the king’s holy place and his royal house.”

Amos answered Amaziah, “I am not a prophet, nor am I a prophet’s son; but I am a shepherd, and a trimmer of sycamore trees. But the LORD took me from shepherding the flock, and the LORD said to me, ‘Go, prophesy to my people Israel.’”

“Now then hear the LORD’s word.

You say, ‘Don’t prophesy against Israel,
and don’t preach
against the house of Isaac.’

“Therefore, the LORD proclaims:

‘Your wife will become a prostitute in the city,
and your sons and your daughters will fall by the sword,
and your land will be measured and divided up;
you yourself will die in an unclean land,
and Israel will surely be taken away from its land.’”

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Looking for Something to Do This Summer? Ring Bells!

Are you looking for some summer enrichment? Maybe you need a fun activity to do with a friend, family member, or loved one? Did you make a New Year's resolution to learn a new skill that you haven't started yet? Whether it's any of these or one of a hundred more reasons, come join Noah Hartsfield, Handbell Director for a fun and low-commitment summer opportunity! He invites you to join in an intergenerational handbell ringing opportunity. The group will meet on Wednesday evenings in July and August (beginning Wednesday, July 16th) to learn how to ring handbells, make music, and have fun. Whether you have any experience with bells or even music or not, all are invited to give it a try. You are only responsible for two notes and we can mark music! All friends who are rising 2nd graders or older are invited to participate (friends that are 2nd through 5th grade need an adult to participate with them). The group will meet from 6:30p to 7:30p and nursery care is available if needed. You do not need to be available all Wednesdays to participate. If you are interested or want more information, please contact Noah at nhartsfield2010@gmail.com.

Sing with the Chancel Choir!

Choir rehearsals are held on Sundays at 9:10 am in the Sanctuary choir loft. We'll prepare a few low-impact anthems to get us through the summer before we begin in a fuller capacity in August. We'll also begin looking more in depth at our fall concert repertoire. If you've ever had an inkling to see what choir is all about, this is your opportunity! No previous experience required and all ages are welcome — all you need is a love of music! See you there!

Churchwide Pool Party – August 3 at Oakland Pool

You asked for it, and it's back! Join us August 3rd for our Churchwide Pool Party at Oakland Pool, hosted by our Kids and Youth Ministries! We've reserved the entire pool from 5:30 to 7:30 pm, so bring your swimsuit, towel, and church friends of all ages for an evening of splashing, laughter, and summer fun. The event is free, and we'll have freeze pops to help you cool down. Feel free to bring your own food and drinks, just remember, no glass containers. Let's make some waves together!

Missions Survey

Last week, at Brunch Worship, we participated in a Missions survey, giving our feedback and sharing our opinions on how we'd like to see First Baptist contribute to our community and the world. The goal of the Serving Team is to invest in work that helps our congregation feel passionate about missions and serving. We request your input on mission priorities. If you didn't have a chance to fill out the survey, there are copies in each worship space. When completed, you can fold & place it in the survey box or hand it to a pastor.
