Welcome

†Call to Worship

Friends, we gather together, bringing our whole selves,
our stories, our questions, our need for one another.

Teach us to love like you love.

God meets us here, not at a distance,
but close: in bodies, in presence, in care.

Teach us to love like you love.

Today we recall the story when Jesus knelt to serve,
washed weary feet, and shared a table with friends.

Teach us to love like you love.

Following Jesus, we are called to be a community that shows up for one another,
in kindness, in courage, in compassion.

Teach us to love like you love.

So come, let us worship our God who feeds us,
who serves us, and who calls us to do the same.

Teach us to love like you love.

†Passing the Peace of Christ

John 13:1-15

Before the Festival of Passover, Jesus knew that his time had come to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them fully.

Jesus and his disciples were sharing the evening meal. The devil had already provoked Judas, Simon Iscariot's son, to betray Jesus. Jesus knew the Father had given everything into his hands and that he had come from God and was returning to God. So he got up from the table and took off his robes. Picking up a linen towel, he tied it around his waist. Then he poured water into a washbasin and began to wash the disciples' feet, drying them with the towel he was wearing. When Jesus came to Simon Peter, Peter said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

Jesus replied, "You don't understand what I'm doing now, but you will understand later."

"No!" Peter said. "You will never wash my feet!"

Jesus replied, "Unless I wash you, you won't have a place with me."

Simon Peter said, "Lord, not only my feet but also my hands and my head!"

Jesus responded, "Those who have bathed need only to have their feet washed, because they are completely clean. You disciples are clean, but not every one of you." He knew who would betray him. That's why he said, "Not every one of you is clean."

After he washed the disciples' feet, he put on his robes and returned to his place at the table. He said to them, "Do you know what I've done for you? You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and you speak correctly, because I am. If I, your Lord and teacher, have washed your feet, you too must wash each other's feet. I have given you an example: Just as I have done, you also must do.

The Gospel of our Lord.

Praise be to Christ.

Scripture Reading

Russ Scott

Mark 14:22-26

While they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to them, and said, “Take; this is my body.” He took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, “This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. I assure you that I won’t drink wine again until that day when I drink it in a new way in God’s kingdom.” After singing songs of praise, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

The Gospel of our Lord.

Praise be to Christ.

Announcements

Welcome Visitors!

If you are visiting, we are so glad to have you with us! If you would like to receive more information about First Baptist and our ministries, you can fill out a connection card from the pew back, scan the QR code in the bulletin, or visit our website at fbc-columbia.org/connect

Stonebridge House Workday Opportunity – March 28

Stonebridge House is accredited as a 4-bed recovery house in downtown Columbia that provides shelter and guidance to women coming out of prison for 12 months. They are one of our partners in ministry, allowing us to be a part of this beautiful work. They are getting the house ready to welcome the next woman to come out of incarceration and into a new story where she is a main character. If you would like to be part of this story, you are invited to participate in a work day. Join us for some light cleaning, organizing and decorating on March 28, 8am-1pm. If you have a vision for how the space could look, talk with Rebekah Robertson. Rebekah@stonebridgehouse.org. Let Rebekah know if you can come because lunch will be provided.

Holy Week @ FIRST BAPTIST

Maundy Thursday – April 2

The Liturgical Arts Team invites you to a self-directed experience from 6 pm to 7pm on Maundy Thursday. This intergenerational event invites you to multiple interactive experiences that invite participation in the Lent experience and a personal experience with the story. Foot or hand washing will be available. This will be held in the Sanctuary.

Ecumenical Good Friday Observance – April 3

Downtown churches are invited to gather at noon on April 3rd, Good Friday. We honor the importance of worshiping together during challenging times. This solemn service will be held on the lawn of First Baptist Church, 1112 E Broadway. Together in the noise and movement of a busy city we will seek to center ourselves and reflect on Jesus' sacrifice for us. Our annual observance of Good Friday will be at 6pm in the Fellowship Hall.

Easter Vigil – Saturday, April 4

Join us Holy Saturday at 6pm for a special Easter Vigil service in the sanctuary in which we will observe mindfulness of Jesus' death through candle lighting, thoughtful meditation, and chanting. This brief service is intended to help us find an attitude of solemnity before celebration during the hours between the sunset of Holy Saturday and the sunrise of Easter morning.
