Welcome

Pastor Brittany McDonald Null

†Call to Worship (responsive)

We need your presence on the long road, O God.

You are with us, God.

On the road between fear and hope,
the road between the place where all is lost
and the place of resurrection,

You are with us, God.

Like the disciples walking the road to Emmaus,
we are in need of your company!

You are with us, God.

Jesus, stand among us, in your risen power,
let this time of worship, be a hallowed hour.

You are with us, God.

Luke 24: 13-35

On that same day, two disciples were traveling to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. They were talking to each other about everything that had happened. While they were discussing these things, Jesus himself arrived and joined them on their journey. They were prevented from recognizing him.

He said to them, “What are you talking about as you walk along?” They stopped, their faces downcast.

The one named Cleopas replied, “Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who is unaware of the things that have taken place there over the last few days?”

He said to them, “What things?”

They said to him, “The things about Jesus of Nazareth. Because of his powerful deeds and words, he was recognized by God and all the people as a prophet. But our chief priests and our leaders handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him. We had hoped he was the one who would redeem Israel. All these things happened three days ago. But there’s more: Some women from our group have left us stunned. They went to the tomb early this morning and didn’t find his body. They came to us saying that they had even seen a vision of angels who told them he is alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found things just as the women said. They didn’t see him.”

Then Jesus said to them, “You foolish people! Your dull minds keep you from believing all that the prophets talked about. Wasn’t it necessary for the Christ to suffer these things and then enter into his glory?” Then he interpreted for them the things written about himself in all the scriptures, starting with Moses and going through all the Prophets.

When they came to Emmaus, he acted as if he was going on ahead. But they urged him, saying, “Stay with us. It’s nearly evening, and the day is almost over.” So he went in to stay with them. After he took his seat at the table with them, he took the bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he disappeared from their sight. They said to each other, “Weren’t our hearts on fire when he spoke to us along the road and when he explained the scriptures for us?”

They got up right then and returned to Jerusalem. They found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying to each other, “The Lord really has risen! He appeared to Simon!” Then the two disciples described what had happened along the road and how Jesus was made known to them as he broke the bread.

The Gospel of our Lord.

Responsive Prayer

Pastor Brittany McDonald Null

Surprising God,
you meet us on the road,
in places we expected
and places we did not.
When joy finds us unexpected and bright,
you are with us.
When laughter spills out and hope feels alive again,
Alleluia! You are with us.
And when sorrow settles in,
we trust that even then you are with us.
When we whisper, “we had hoped...”
you are there, O Christ.
When our hearts are burning,
help us know it’s you.
When we cannot recognize you,
travel with us anyway.
In the breaking of bread,
in the quiet of evening,
you are with us.
In every joy, in every sorrow,
you are with us.
Surprising God,
you meet us exactly as we are,
Alleluia and amen.

Welcome Visitors!

If you are visiting, we are so glad to have you with us! If you would like to receive more information about First Baptist and our ministries, you can fill out a connection card from the pew back, scan the QR code in the bulletin, or visit our website at fbc-columbia.org/connect

First Baptist Volunteer Appreciation Night - May 1 at 6:00 pm

Volunteers help make this church the best it can be. You show up early, stay late, and give your time, energy, and care in ways that shape who we are together. You welcome, serve, teach, pray, and lead. And we are so grateful. We want to take time to celebrate you.

We know many of you rush through breakfast on Sunday mornings to make sure you are here for others. So, we would love to offer something different. Join us for breakfast for dinner. Not rushed, but intentional. A chance to sit, linger, and be served.

Whether you serve on Sundays or another day of the week, this evening is for you. You and your family are invited to a night of fellowship, good food, and fun.

RSVP using the QR code by April 26 so we can be sure to have enough for everyone. We can't wait to celebrate you!
