†Call to Worship (responsive)

Come and see the waves of wonder,
rolling, splashing, and joining in praise.

God is good. God is here. We worship God with wonder.

We journey together
to listen and learn,
to praise and play,
to care and create.

God is good. God is here. We worship God with wonder.

Let's worship the God who moves in every wave,
breathes in every breeze,
and calls us to love the earth and all who live on it.

God is good. God is here. We worship God with wonder.

Scripture Reading

Mark 4:35-41

Later that day, when evening came, Jesus said to them, “Let’s cross over to the other side of the lake.” They left the crowd and took him in the boat just as he was. Other boats followed along.

Gale-force winds arose, and waves crashed against the boat so that the boat was swamped. But Jesus was in the rear of the boat, sleeping on a pillow. They woke him up and said, “Teacher, don’t you care that we’re drowning?” He got up and gave orders to the wind, and he said to the lake, “Silence! Be still!” The wind settled down and there was a great calm. Jesus asked them, “Why are you frightened? Don’t you have faith yet?” Overcome with awe, they said to each other, “Who then is this? Even the wind and the sea obey him!”

The Gospel of our Lord.

Praise be to Christ.

Inclusion Work from the Racial Justice and Inclusion Team

Happy Pride Month!

FBC wishes everyone a Happy Pride! Columbia officially celebrates Pride in the month of October, and our Racial Justice and Inclusion Team has already begun to prepare. The weekend of October 4th and 5th marks the 25th anniversary of the Mid-Mo Pride Fest and FBC will be a part of the celebration. This is part of our calling to be an inclusive community where LGBTQIA + people are welcomed and affirmed.

Disability Awareness Month

The Racial Justice team, in collaboration with Lexi Simmerman, will also lead us in Disability Awareness in the month of October. We are thankful for their leadership in helping us to continue to live into our vision of inclusiveness for all.
