† Call to Worship (responsive)

Come, a great cloud of witnesses surrounds us as we gather.

May the lingering echo of saints resound in our songs.

May their stories open a space for the Spirit to enter us anew.

In remembering them, may we find ourselves re-membered.

May the God of every generation form us anew for this generation.

And may a new joy rise in our lives and in the life of the world.

All Saints' Day Moment of Remembrance

*All Saints' Day is a universal Christian time of worship to honor and remember all Christian saints, known and unknown.
The day is observed by remembering and thanking God for all saints.
It is a day to glorify Jesus, who by his holy life and death has made the saints holy through baptism and faith.*

All Saints' Litany (responsive)

Today, we remember the ancestors of our faith,
from Abraham to Sarah, to Paul and Phoebe:

We remember you.

We remember those whose lives built the foundation
for the First Baptist faith family:

We remember you.

We remember grandparents and parents, aunts and uncles,
those who have gone before us in our lifetime:

We remember you.

We lift up the memories of siblings, spouses, partners,
significant loves, children and friends, whose lives ended too soon:

We remember you.

We lift up to you, O God, the names of those we have lost in this past year from our lives, knowing that they are with you forever.

As we read the names, we will pause after each name to remember,
pray, and give thanks for their lives.

Dorothy Armstrong

Diana Groshong

Scott Lochmoeller

Jennifer McClanahan

Joe Phillips

Richard Sorrels

Bunky Wright

Jeremy Weingartner

Along with these names, there are others you have known outside of these walls. We invite you to ring a bell in their memory, and then speak their name aloud.

Silence is kept while the bell is rung.

We remember you all and honor you. You will not be forgotten. We give thanks, O God, for all who have gone on to be with you beyond this life. We trust in the hope of resurrection and the promise of new life in Christ, and know that in our grief and celebration, You, O God, are with us. In the name of Christ, in whom love lives forever, we pray. Amen.

†Hymn 751 (vs. 5,6)

For All the Saints

Scripture Reading

Eli Marchbanks

Hebrews 11:32-12:2

And what more should I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets, who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were made strong out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight. Women received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, refusing to accept release, in order to obtain a better resurrection. Others suffered mocking and flogging and even chains and imprisonment. They were stoned to death; they were sawn in two; they were killed by the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, persecuted, tormented— of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains and in caves and holes in the ground.

Yet all these, though they were commended for their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better so that they would not, apart from us, be made perfect.

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Special Music

In Bright Mansions Above

Chancel Bells, directed by Noah Hartsfield

Carter Thiemann, piano

Jonathan Ray, tenor

*In bright mansions above, in bright mansions above,
Lord, I want to live up yonder in bright mansions above.*

*My father's gone to Glory; I want to go there too.
Lord, I want to live up yonder in bright mansions above.*

*My mother's gone to Glory; I want to go there too.
Lord, I want to live up yonder in bright mansions above.*

Message

Pastor Carol McEntyre

Prayer for Communion (responsive)

Tender, transforming God, you have invited us to gather at this table,
To taste the feast,
the same abundant promises offered to our ancestors in faith.

Time and time again you've offered your grace,
Even as we have stepped away,
You continue to call us to be your people.

You have never left us.
We praise you for second, third, and fourth chances.
You are ever-patient, always faithful.

We give thanks for this time of celebration.
For the One this meal remembers.
For the life, ministry, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

With those who have gone before us,
Whose hands touched the bread,
Whose lips embraced the cup,
We worship you.
We glorify you.

And we remember all those who have gone before us,
As we proclaim the mystery of our faith:
Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

God of all, send your Spirit to this place
so that those gathered here, in this sacred moment,
may know your presence.
As we eat the bread and drink of the cup,
make us one with the saints,
and with our siblings in faith around the world. Amen.

†Hymn of Response

We Remember with Thanksgiving
sung to NETTLETON

*We remember with thanksgiving those who dared frontiers of old, speaking words of faithful living, they in truth the gospel told.
They believed the church's story that in Christ all folk are one.
Both the mission and the glory were that God's good will be done.*

*We rejoice to see the spirit working here and now as then.
claiming lives of those who hear it – good news told by tongue and pen – reconciling teaching, healing, saving body, mind and soul, peace with justice, love revealing God's desire to make us whole.*

*Into future generations may the word go out abroad,
so all peoples, lands, and nations join to praise the triune God.
Then, in gratitude for vision, reaffirm, recall, rejoice,
Recommit ourselves to mission, still the church's clearest voice.*

Jesus and John Wayne Book Discussion

Sunday, November 5 at 12:30 pm

Join Pastoral Resident Caleb Cooke on November 5 at 12:30 pm in the Conference Room for a conversation about one of our summer reads, Jesus and John Wayne. In this brilliant book, author Kristin Kobes Du Mez argues that the 2016 election of Donald Trump was not an accident. Rather, Trump's rise to evangelical fame is a feature of a 75-year-long transformation of Jesus into a macho "spiritual badass." Feel free to join the discussion even if you haven't read the book; it will be a lively one. We will meet in the Conference Room and a meal will be provided.

200th Anniversary Celebration Worship Service & Church Photo

We invite all First Baptist friends to join us in celebrating a momentous occasion - our 200th Anniversary! On November 12, at 11:15 am, we will come together for a special Anniversary Celebration Worship Service as we give thanks to God for 200 years of mission and ministry. Following the service, we will gather on the Sanctuary chancel and take a church-wide photo! All who worship with us will be invited to participate in the photo opportunity.

ADVENT(ure) – November 29th at 6pm

First Kids wants to invite all children in their families to this year's Advent(ure): Our Super Cool Pool Party! You LOVE pool parties, right? But in winter - nah, hard pass. So let's have a pool party, with all the pool noodles, pool toys, and pool antics, but without the water. Our Super Cool Pool Party is a family event leading up to the season of Advent. Children and their families can play games, eat from our ice cream bar, and fellowship with one another. Join us as we prepare for the Advent season with fellowship and fun!
