†Call to Worship (responsive)

We come before God as equal in God's sight.

God knows us thoroughly and loves us completely.

None of us is perfect and without blemish.

Yet God has called us God's children and asked us to be compassionate and responsible in our caring and witness.

We are called to be God's people.

Thanks be to God who trusts us and pours God's abundant love on us.

Litany of Alignment with Christ

Caleb Cooke, Pastoral Resident

God, we shake off all that distracts us,
 All that doesn't serve heaven's cause,
All that is not aligned with the highest good,
 All that keeps us from becoming our truest selves:
Inheritors of the riches of God's grace,
 Adopted and beloved siblings with Christ.

We ask for help in re-calibrating ourselves to the gospel of Christ,
 In aligning ourselves with the vision of Christ,
In participating in the mission of Christ,
 And in bringing the world into the light of Christ.

We participate with you, God, in clearing ourselves
of every broken paradigm,
 Every false and limiting belief,
Every residue of violence and trauma,
 Every ego-centered desire,
Every voice, inner or outer, that reduces or invalidates us,
 Every thought or thing that impedes Love.
We step into our calling,
 As receivers and transmitters of salvation,
Perpetuators of God's Kin-dom,
 And experiencers of abundant life.

May the Divine assist us,
 May the Spirit encourage us,
And may the Christ be tangibly present with us.
 Amen.

Gospel Reading

Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, “Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.” And he said to them, “What is it you want me to do for you?” And they said to him, “Appoint us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.” But Jesus said to them, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?” They replied, “We are able.” Then Jesus said to them, “The cup that I drink you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized you will be baptized, but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to appoint, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.”

When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, “You know that among the gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; instead, whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve and to give his life a ransom for many.”

The Gospel of Our Lord.
Praise Be to Christ.

One Great Hour of Sharing: ABCUSA World Relief Month

In May, on behalf of the American Baptist World Relief Office, First Baptist will be collecting contributions for One Great Hour of Sharing. Based on Matthew 5:14, this year's theme is "Sharing the Light." Throughout May, you will see promotional materials in and around our bulletins, as well as hear about One Great Hour of Sharing during worship. We are excited to partner with you in sending God's light into the world.

Staff Retreat: Wednesday, May 15

On Wednesday, May 15, the entire church staff will be taking a day away for a planning retreat at Mt. Nebo Inn, in Rocheport, MO. Taking a break from the deadlines, details, and demands of daily ministry, we'll build our relationships with one another and look at the bigger picture of the year ahead. We'll also firm up calendar commitments consistent with our congregation's vision and traditions.

So that the entire staff can participate in this opportunity, the church office will be closed that day. In case of an emergency, you can reach us by calling Pastor Greg's cellphone: 318-518-8336. Thanks ahead of time for supporting this valuable staff experience.

Special Adult Small Group Class – Enneagram

First Baptist will be offering an additional adult small group during the month of June! Beginning June 2nd, in the conference room (2nd floor) during the Spiritual Formation hour we will have a new class called, "You, the Hero: An Enneagram Journey." Led by certified Enneagram coach David Jacobs, this discussion-based class offers a deep, insightful dive into the Enneagram model and its nine different personalities, and will help to give you a better understanding of who you are and, most importantly, who you can become - the Hero of your own life story.

First Kids Pentecost Party – May 19 at 10:15 am

First Kids and their families are invited to the front lawn (weather permitting) following the combined worship service. Participants will hear the Pentecost story, play games, and sing happy birthday to the church over cupcakes.
