Gathering Chime

As the bell is chimed, we invite you to pause, center yourself, and prepare your heart and mind for worship.

Prelude

I Will Arise
Chancel Choir

arr. Robert Shaw

*I will arise and go to Jesus, He will embrace me in His arms
In the arms of my dear Savior, Oh! There are ten thousand charms*

*Teach me some melodious sonnet sung by flaming tongues above
Praise the mount, I'm fixed upon it, mount of Thy redeeming love*

*Come, thou fount of ev'ry blessing, tune my heart to sing the grace
Streams of mercy never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise*

Welcome

†Call to Worship (responsive)

We gather today as people on a journey,
held by grace though we do not always know how to hold one another well.

We are loved by God and held together in hope.

When fear and power try to define us,
when people and systems tell false stories about who belongs,

God listens to our voices and whispers words of belonging.

When we feel weary, uncertain, or pushed to the edges,
God plants seeds of courage and compassion within us.

We trust the slow, faithful work of God.

We are called to live spaciously,
with mercy, integrity, and love that makes room for one another.

We belong to God, and to one another.

So come and worship, people of the Living God.

God is with us now and always.

Holy one, root us in hope. Shape us in grace. Lead us in love.

Let us worship the God who brings life, freedom,
and new beginnings.

†Opening Hymn 90

Scripture Reading

1 Peter 2:11-12

Dear friends, since you are immigrants and strangers in the world, I urge that you avoid worldly desires that wage war against your lives. Live honorably among the unbelievers. Today, they defame you, as if you were doing evil. But in the day when God visits to judge they will glorify him, because they have observed your honorable deeds.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

†Hymn 571

What Does the Lord Require?

Pastoral Prayer

†Hymn 557

Open My Eyes, That I May See

Sharing Our Gifts

Anthem

Be Still, My Soul

arr. Noah Hartsfield

Chancel Choir w/ Olivia, cello

*Be still my soul, the Lord is on your side
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain
Leave to your God to order and provide
In every change He faithful will remain
Be still my soul, your best, your heavenly friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end*

*Be still, my soul, your God will undertake
To guide the future as He has the past
Your hope, your confidence let nothing shake
All now mysterious shall be bright at last
Be still, my soul, the waves and winds still know
His voice who ruled them while He dwelt below*

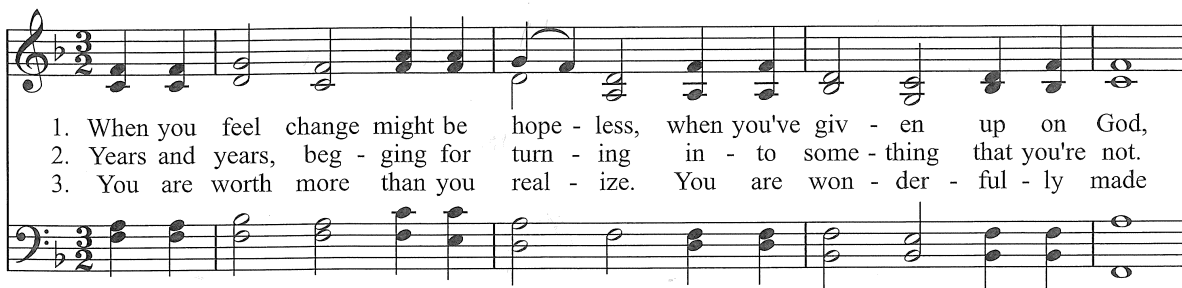

*Be still my soul, the hour is hastening on
When we shall be forever with the Lord
When disappointment, grief, and fear are gone
Sorrow forgot, love's purest joys restored
Be still my soul, when change and tears are past
All safe and blessed we shall meet at last*

Pentecost Combined Worship - May 24

11:15 am in the Sanctuary

Pentecost marks the day the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus' followers. Pentecost is a Jewish festival celebrated fifty days after Passover, and it was during this festival that the Spirit was given. We celebrate Pentecost with gratitude for the gift of God's Spirit and for the birth of the church on that day. It is a morning of joy and celebration. It is our tradition to celebrate with a combined worship. We will gather at 11:15am in the Sanctuary and mark the day with a baptism!

Graduate Sunday – May 31

First Baptist would like to honor all of our high school, college, and post-college graduates on Sunday, May 31. Graduates will be recognized in both worship services. We are asking all graduates, or parents of graduates, to send graduation information to the church by Sunday, May 17 so it may be featured in The Spire and on our church bulletin board. For high school graduates, please include: your name, senior photo, school you are graduating from, and future plans. For college and post-college graduates, please include: your name, a recent photo, the school you are graduating from, the degree you are receiving, and your future plans. Information may be emailed to bnull@fbc-columbia.org. We do not want to miss celebrating any of our graduates' accomplishments, so please help us honor all the graduates in our congregation by sending in this information soon.

Support Our Graduating High School Seniors

Help us celebrate our graduating high school seniors by sharing a prayer with them. You might offer a prayer of encouragement, intercession, affirmation, or hope. As they enter a new season of life, we want to surround them with reminders that they are deeply loved by this community of faith and held in prayer wherever they go. If you would like to handwrite a note, pages are available in both worship spaces. You may also type your prayer and send it to Lillian Hoell at Lillian.hoell@gmail.com.

Unidiversity Youth Camp Payment Reminder

A quick reminder that final payments for youth camp are now due. We are so excited for this meaningful week together and want to make sure everyone is all set to go. If you have any questions about your balance or need help, please don't hesitate to reach out. You can make payments using the QR code:

If you would like to help make camp possible for a young person through a scholarship, we would love your support. Please contact Pastor Brittany, bnull@fbc-columbia.org, for more information on how you can be part of making this experience accessible to all.

Summer Worship Series

During last summer's combined worship, we learned the joy of being together. With summer travel our worship spaces can feel empty. The time we spent together made both worship services better. It made our community better.

As we worship together this summer, we're creating space not just to gather in one room, but to truly experience the different ways First Baptist worships and connects with God. Each service will reflect the unique rhythms, music, and traditions of its worship community, offering all of us the opportunity to learn from and appreciate one another more deeply. It's one small way we practice being a church shaped by unity without uniformity.

This summer we will combine, but with a twist. During June, our worship will be at 9:15am in the Awakening Space, led by the Awakening Team. The exception will be on June 12 when we celebrate Journey Together in worship.

In July, we will worship at 11:15am in the Sanctuary, led by the Traditional Team. The exception will be brunch worship on July 5 at 10:15am in the Fellowship Hall.

We look forward to a wonderful summer of worship, Journey Together, Unidiversity, and so much more!

Journey Together: Connect - June 12-14

First Kids is excited to announce that registration is now open for Journey Together: Connect!

Join us for this intergenerational faith formation weekend where children, youth, and adults come together to explore what it means to belong to one another and to God.

Throughout our time together, we'll hear stories from scripture that invite us to practice connection in meaningful ways - making room for others, staying connected, listening well, and opening our hearts. Through worship, storytelling, hands-on activities, and shared experiences, we will discover how our lives are woven together and how we can grow in faith as a community.

This year also includes Wayfinders: Making Sense of the Pieces, a space for 5th and 6th graders to explore their faith more deeply through questions, conversation, and reflection.

Important Dates:

- T-shirt deadline: May 24
- Food registration deadline: June 1

We hope you and your family will join us as we build relationships, grow in faith, and experience the joy of connection together.
