Jesus Fed a Crowd

BASED ON JOHN 6:1-13

WEEKLY VERSE: When we pray, God hears us. 1 John 5:14

LIFE POINT: God hears and answers prayer.

One day Jesus and His disciples (helpers) were sitting on a mountainside. Many people followed them. The people had heard about Jesus. They knew Jesus helped people.

It was almost time to eat. Jesus knew the people were hungry. Jesus asked His helper Philip, "Where can we buy bread for all these people to eat?" Philip told Jesus that it would take a lot of money to buy enough food for everyone.

Andrew, another one of Jesus' disciples, saw a little boy with five small loaves of bread and two fish. Andrew told Jesus about the boy's fish and bread.

Jesus told His disciples, "Tell the people to sit down." All the people sat on the ground. Jesus took the five loaves of bread and two fish. Jesus thanked God for them. Then Jesus broke the bread and fish into pieces to give to the people.

The people ate as much food as they wanted. Then Jesus told His disciples, "Gather the leftover bread and fish." They filled baskets with food. There were 12 baskets of leftover food. Jesus had fed many hungry people!

God Protected Elijah

1 KINGS 19:1-18

Wicked Queen Jezebel was furious when she heard how Elijah had killed the prophets of the false god Baal. The queen sent a message to Elijah: "May the gods punish me severely if I do not kill you by this time tomorrow!"

Elijah was terrified and ran for his life. He journeyed into the wilderness and collapsed under a tree, praying that he would die. Elijah told God, "I have had enough, Lord! Take my life!" Then Elijah laid down and fell asleep. An angel woke Elijah. "Get up and eat," the angel urged him. When Elijah looked, there was a loaf of bread baked on hot stones and a jug of fresh water. He ate and drank and went back to sleep. The angel returned and said, "Get up and eat, or your journey will be too much for you." Elijah ate another meal. Feeling stronger, he traveled 40 days and 40 nights to Horeb, the mountain of God. He found a cave and spent the night.

God spoke to Elijah while he was in the cave: "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

"I have been serving the Lord God with all my strength," explained Elijah, "but the people have abandoned You and killed Your prophets. I am the only one left, and they are looking for me, too!"

God said, "Go out and stand on the mountain in My presence." Elijah did, and God passed by.

Suddenly, there was a mighty wind that tore the mountain and shattered the cliffs, but God was not in the wind. Next, an earthquake rocked the mountain, but God was not in the earthquake. Then there was a fire, but God was not in the fire. After the fire, there was a still small voice. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then Elijah heard a soft whisper: "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

Elijah answered, "I am the only prophet left, and they are looking for me to take my life!"

God encouraged Elijah: "Go back and return the way you came. Follow My instructions. I will provide for you and give you helpers. There will be seven thousand people in Israel who still follow Me."
