

PULL a Wagon

Fold this page and tuck it in between the pages of a Bible. Place the Bible in a pull toy. Encourage your child to pull the toy and Bible around the room. Say that Philip helped the Ethiopian man understand the words in the scroll. Ask your child to take the paper out of the Bible. Look at the Bible story (reverse side) together.

MAKE a Scroll

Gather two craft sticks or two straws. Cut a piece of paper the same width as the sticks. Help your child tape the ends of the paper to the sticks. Show your child how to roll the paper up to make a scroll. Explain that Philip and the Ethiopian man read Scripture words on a scroll, but now we have the same Scripture words written in the Bible. Write The Bible Tells About Jesus on the scroll and encourage your toddler to decorate it with markers or crayons.

PLAY with People Figures

Invite your baby to hold people figures. Show two figures as you tell the Bible story (reverse side). Show a Bible. Say that the words Philip read are now in the Bible.

Philip Taught About Jesus

ACTS 8:26-40

Philip traveled from town to town, telling people about Jesus. One day an angel (a messenger from God) spoke to Philip. The angel told Philip to go to the desert road that went from Jerusalem to Gaza.

So Philip started walking down the road. He saw a man from Ethiopia riding in a chariot. The Ethiopian man had been to Jerusalem to worship God. Philip heard the man reading from a Bible scroll. Philip asked the man, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

"No," the man said. "I need someone to explain the words to me." Philip sat beside him in the chariot and explained the words. Philip told the man that the words in the Bible scroll were about Jesus. He told him the good news about Jesus.

The man saw some water and wanted to be baptized. Philip and the man went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. The Ethiopian man went home very happy. Philip traveled to other places to tell people about Jesus.

Chariot Maze

VERSE

“Repent and be baptized, each of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.”

ACTS 2:38 (CSB)

The Holy Spirit told Philip to go to the Ethiopian in the chariot to help the man understand what he was reading in the Scriptures. Help the chariot get through the maze.

FINISH

WHO IS THE LAMB?

Read Isaiah 53:7. This was the passage Philip explained to the Ethiopian in the chariot. Philip explained that the lamb was Jesus, the Messiah. In the spaces, write the name Jesus to remind you that Jesus died to save you from your sins.

_____ was oppressed and afflicted, yet _____ did not open His mouth. Like a lamb led to the slaughter and like a sheep silent before her shearers, _____ did not open His mouth.

An Ethiopian Believed

ACTS 8:26-40

An angel spoke to Philip, "Get up and go to the road that leads from Jerusalem to Gaza." Philip left the place he had been preaching to obey the command.

Philip came to the desert road and saw an important man from Ethiopia riding in his chariot. He worked for Candace, the queen, and was in charge of her money. The Ethiopian man had traveled to Jerusalem to worship and now was on his way home. Philip noticed that the man was reading aloud from a scroll with words written by the prophet Isaiah.

God's Spirit told Philip to join the chariot. Philip ran alongside the chariot and asked, "Do you understand the words you are reading?"

The Ethiopian man said, "How can I unless someone guides me?" He invited Philip to climb up and sit next to him in the chariot. The Ethiopian was reading about a man: "He was taken to be killed, and just like a lamb is quiet while it is being sheared, He never opened His mouth. Even though He was unfairly accused, His life was taken."

The Ethiopian man asked, "Is the prophet writing about himself or someone else?" Philip explained that the words were about Jesus. Philip used Isaiah's words written on the scroll to tell the man the good news about Jesus.

As the Ethiopian man and Philip traveled down the road, they came to some water. The Ethiopian asked, "Is there anything to keep me from being baptized?"

Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, you may!"

Philip baptized the Ethiopian man, who joyfully continued on his way home. God's Spirit took Philip to another place, where he kept on preaching about Jesus.
