Paul and Barnabas Were Missionaries

BASED ON ACTS 13

Paul and Barnabas were teachers in the church at Antioch. God wanted them to go to many places and tell people about Jesus. The men in the church prayed for Paul and Barnabas before they left. The church sent them out as missionaries.

Paul and Barnabas sailed to an island called Cyprus. They taught about Jesus in the synagogues (churches). The synagogue was a place where people went to pray and learn about God.

Next they sailed from the island and went to many other places. Everywhere they went, they told the people about God and that Jesus was God's Son. Many people wanted to hear more about Jesus.

In one town, Paul taught about Jesus in the synagogue. The people asked Paul and Barnabas to come back the next week and teach them more about Jesus. A large crowd came to hear Paul. Some of the people believed Jesus was God's Son; other people did not believe.

Paul and Barnabas continued to be missionaries and tell people about Jesus in many different places.

UNIT VERSE

He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation."

Missionary LIFE

Some missionaries are foreign missionaries. This means they travel away from home, sometimes a far distance, to tell about Jesus. Look at the phrases scattered around the map. Circle the activities that missionaries might experience when they are on mission that are true.

Missions Match

Christians are called to help all the world hear the gospel and God's plan for salvation. Look up each Scripture reference and draw a line to what the verse says a missionary should do.

Matthew 28:19-20

1 Chronicles 16:24

John 20:21

Acts 13:47

Show people how to be saved by Jesus.

Have peace in Jesus as they go to tell others.

Tell people how wonderful God is and the amazing things He's done.

Go and make disciples, baptize them, and teach them to obey God.

Paul and Barnabas Were Missionaries

ACTS 13

When Saul, Barnabas, and other men came to the church at Antioch, they did not know it would be a special day. While they worshiped and taught about Jesus, the Holy Spirit sent a message: “I have something special for Saul and Barnabas to do. Recognize them for this special work.” The men placed their hands on Saul and Barnabas and sent them off to tell others about Jesus.

Saul (who was also called Paul) and Barnabas took a boat to Cyprus and preached about Jesus in the synagogues. In Paphos they met a government leader who wanted to hear what they were teaching, but a magician named Elymas did not want the leader to hear. Elymas made it difficult for Paul to teach. Paul stared right at the evil man and said, “You are changing God’s words. You are evil. God will make you blind for a time because of this.” Immediately, everything was dark for Elymas. When the leader saw it, he was amazed by God’s power and believed what Paul and Barnabas said about Jesus.

Paul and Barnabas continued to travel. One day they listened as God’s Word was read in the synagogue. Then the church leaders invited them to speak. Paul reviewed Jewish history with them. He reminded the people how God worked when they were in Egypt and in the desert. God gave them good land and judges to help them know what to do. God also gave them a great king named David.

Paul explained that John the Baptist preached about the One who was coming. This was Jesus, a descendant of King David. Paul showed them Scriptures about Jesus and taught about Jesus’ death and resurrection.

On the next Sabbath day, Paul and Barnabas returned to the synagogue to preach. This time even more people showed up to hear. This made some Jewish leaders jealous, and they caused problems for Paul and Barnabas.

“Because you reject what we say,” Paul said, “we will share God’s message with the Gentiles.” The Gentiles, people who were not Jewish, were excited to hear about Jesus. Many people believed in Jesus, and the good news spread throughout the whole area.
