

Count FINGERS and TOES

Remind your child that God gave Moses ten rules to tell the people (see reverse side). Count your child's fingers or toes aloud. Ask your child to echo each number when you say it. Say that we follow God's rules because we love God and want to obey Him.

Observe ROAD SIGNS

Point out road signs and traffic lights while driving with your child. Explain that the signs tell drivers the rules for driving so that people are safe. Remind your child that God gave people rules about what they should do and how they should live.

God Gave the Ten Commandments

Based on Exodus 19–20; 31:18;
Deuteronomy 5:1-21

After Moses and the people of Israel left Egypt, they camped in the desert. Moses was leading the people to a special land God had told them to find. One day God told Moses to leave the camp and walk up a mountain. God wanted to talk to Moses. Moses went up the mountain to God.

God said, “Moses, tell the people to obey Me. I want them to know the right thing to do.” Moses went down the mountain and told the people, and they said they would do what God said.

A few days later, a cloud covered the mountain. There was thunder and lightning, and all the people stood afraid at the bottom of the mountain. God called Moses to the top of the mountain. God talked to Moses again. He gave Moses ten important rules called the Ten Commandments. These rules would help the people know how to treat one another and love God. God said that if the people would do what He said, He would remember them always, and they would be His special people forever.

Moses told the people what God said, and the people listened. These are some of God’s rules He wanted the people to follow: Love God. Worship God only. Love your mother and father. Keep your marriage promises. Do not steal. Always tell the truth.

The people said, “We will do everything God said.”

God wrote the Commandments on stone tablets with His finger. He gave them to Moses so the people would know how to obey God.

There is no one holy like the LORD. There is no one besides you! And there is no rock like our God.

TEN Commandments

Grab a Bible and look in Exodus 20 to write the missing commandments on the stone tablets. Can you find all 10?

The words of God tell us more about Him and help us know how to live. That is why God gave the Israelites the Ten Commandments.

God Gave the Ten Commandments

Exodus 19–20; 31:18;
Deuteronomy 5:1-21

It had been three months since the Israelites had followed Moses from Egypt. They were camped near the bottom of Mount Sinai when God called Moses to the top of the mountain. God told Moses, “Remind the people what I did when I rescued them from the Egyptians. Tell them if they listen to Me and obey what I tell them, I will honor them above all people. They will be My holy nation.”

Moses gave God’s message to the people, and they answered, “We will obey everything the Lord has said.”

God told Moses that He would speak in a thick cloud so the people could hear. Moses instructed the people to cleanse themselves and prepare to hear God. Moses told them not to go near the mountain.

On the morning of the third day, the people heard a loud trumpet. They saw lightning and heard thunder. Smoke covered Mount Sinai, and it shook. God appeared to Moses in a fire on top of the mountain and said, “I am the Lord your God who brought you out of Egypt.”

Moses was on the mountain for 40 days. When God finished speaking to Moses, He gave Moses two stone tablets. On the tablets were the Commandments that God wrote with His own finger.

1. Do not have other gods besides the one true God.
2. Do not make an idol to worship.
3. Do not misuse the name of the Lord your God.
4. Remember the Sabbath and keep it holy.
5. Honor your father and mother.
6. Do not murder.
7. Keep your marriage promises.
8. Do not steal.
9. Do not lie.
10. Do not want what belongs to someone else.

When the people saw what was happening, they trembled and stood at a distance. Moses said to them, “Don’t be afraid. Listen to the Commandments I am telling you today and be careful to obey them. The Lord our God has spoken from heaven so that you will know how to live and not sin. We will be His people if we keep His Commandments.”
