

God Told Jeremiah What to Write

VERSE

The Word of God,
the Bible, lasts forever.

1 PETER 1:25

Go on a SCAVENGER HUNT

Talk about the Bible story (reverse side). Mention that Jeremiah listened carefully to God. Give your child a bag or basket and ask him to listen for different things to put in the bag. Name different everyday objects in the house for him to find (ball, book, diaper). Congratulate your child for being a good listener. Say a prayer, thanking God for the Bible that was written by people who listened to God and wrote down his words.

Write with SHAVING CREAM

Place a small amount of shaving cream on a table and spread it over the tabletop in a thin layer. Encourage your child to pretend to write in the shaving cream with his finger. Review that God told Jeremiah what to write, and Jeremiah's helper wrote God's words on a scroll (reverse side). Read the Weekly Verse: "The Word of God, the Bible, lasts forever. 1 Peter 1:25."

Babies

Make a SCROLL

Encourage your baby to make marks on a piece of paper or use a crayon to trace her hands on the paper. Roll the paper into a scroll and tie with a ribbon. Invite your baby to hold the scroll. Remind her that Jeremiah had his helper write the words God told him on a scroll.

Based on Jeremiah 36

Babies

Jeremiah listened to God.

Jeremiah told his helper to write down on a scroll the words God told Jeremiah.

The helper read the words to the king. The king tore the scroll.

Jeremiah had his helper write the words again on another scroll.

1s

God told Jeremiah to get a scroll and write the words God told him. Jeremiah told his helper God's words to write on the scroll.

Then Jeremiah's helper read the scroll at the temple (church). The king heard the words and tore up the scroll.

Jeremiah had his helper write the words again on another scroll.

2s

God told Jeremiah to help people know they should stop doing things that were not right.

God told Jeremiah: "Write on a scroll the words I have told you about the people. Then maybe they will change and do what is right."

Jeremiah called his helper, Baruch (BAY rook), to write on the scroll. Every word God told Jeremiah is what Baruch wrote on the scroll.

Jeremiah told his helper to take the scroll to the temple (church) and read the words to the people.

Then the words on the scroll were read to the king. The king got mad and tore up the scroll.

Jeremiah had his helper write the words again on another scroll.

God Told Jeremiah What to Write

Based on Jeremiah 36

Jeremiah was one of God's special helpers. One day God told Jeremiah, "Take a scroll and write the words I tell you."

Jeremiah asked his helper, Baruch (BEHR uhk), to write the words. Baruch wrote on the scroll all the words God spoke to Jeremiah. Baruch went to the temple (church) and read the scroll to help the people know God's words.

A king's helper heard the words on the scroll and told the king about them. The king wanted to hear the words himself. The king's helper read the scroll to the king. The king did not like what the scroll said, so he cut the scroll into pieces and threw it into the fire.

God told Jeremiah to get another scroll and write God's words about how to live. Baruch helped Jeremiah write the words from the first scroll again and write many more words.

God Told Jeremiah What to Write

Jeremiah 36

When King Jehoiakim (jih-HOY-uh-kim) had been king of Judah for four years, God spoke to the prophet Jeremiah. God said, "Take a scroll and write My words on it. Perhaps if the people hear about all of the disaster I am planning to bring to them, they will turn from their evil ways. Then I will forgive their sins."

Jeremiah called for his scribe, Baruch (BAY-rook). As Jeremiah spoke God's words, Baruch wrote them on a scroll. Then Jeremiah told Baruch to go to the temple and read the words to the people.

One man heard the words on the scroll and went to tell the king's officials in the palace. The officials sent for Baruch and asked him to read the words. When they heard, they looked at each other in fear and asked, "How did you write this?"

Baruch explained, "Jeremiah told me God's words, and I wrote them on the scroll in ink." The officials told Baruch, "You and Jeremiah must hide. Do not tell anyone where you are."

King Jehoiakim was at his winter house. It was cold, and he had a fire burning in front of him. The king sent his servant, Jehudi (jih HYOO digh), to get the scroll. As Jehudi read the words, the king and his men were not afraid of God's warning. Instead, as soon as Jehudi read each part of the scroll, the king would cut off that part with a knife and throw it into the fire! He did this until the entire scroll was burned!

God spoke to Jeremiah again, "Take another scroll and write on it the same words I told you to write on the first scroll. Tell King Jehoiakim that I will bring about disaster on him and the people. I warned them, but they did not listen."

Jeremiah gave another scroll to Baruch. Baruch wrote the same words as before, and God added many more words to the new scroll.
