

Jesus Read the Scriptures

VERSE

The Word of God,
the Bible, lasts forever.

1 PETER 1:25

SEARCH for Books

Call out several of your child's favorite books and ask her to try to find them in her room or on the bookshelf. Repeat with several different books, ending with a Bible or Bible storybook. Review the story that Jesus read the Scriptures and told people the words were about Him. Finish by reading aloud today's Bible story (reverse side).

Babies

Drive by Your CHURCH

Drive past your church building. Point out the building to your baby. Tell your baby that Jesus went to the synagogue (church). Comment that the people there listened to Jesus when He read the Scriptures. Thank God that you have a church where you can read the Bible and learn more about Jesus.

ROLL a Scroll

Write the Weekly Verse on a sheet of paper. Roll up one side of the paper like a scroll and invite your child to try to roll up the other side. When the scroll is rolled, open it and read aloud the Weekly Verse. Remind your child that Jesus read the Scriptures. Then give the scroll to your child and encourage her to open the scroll and "read" the verse. Repeat the words of the verse several times and invite your child to echo them back.

Jesus Read the Scriptures

Based on Luke 4:16-22

Jesus went to the synagogue (church) in Nazareth. He stood where everyone could see Him. A church helper handed Jesus the scroll of Scriptures (Bible scroll).

Jesus carefully unrolled the scroll.

He began to read from Isaiah, "God sent Me to tell people the good news about Him. God sent Me to help people." Jesus rolled up the scroll. He gave it back to the church helper and sat down.

Everyone was watching Jesus. Jesus looked at the people and said, "The words I read in the Scriptures tell about Me."

The people knew Jesus had grown up in Mary and Joseph's family, but they did not know that Jesus was God's Son. The people were surprised at what Jesus said.

Jesus Read the Scriptures

Luke 4:16-22

Jesus grew up in the town of Nazareth, and the people there remembered Him as Joseph and Mary’s son. After Jesus was grown, He returned to Nazareth.

He went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, just as He always did in whatever town or city He happened to be visiting.

Someone handed Jesus a scroll, which the prophet Isaiah wrote many years before. Jesus stood up and began to read aloud from the scroll. He read the words that God had told Isaiah many years before:

“The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set free the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.”

After Jesus read these words, He rolled up the scroll, handed it back to the attendant, and sat down. Everyone in the room was watching to see what Jesus would do next.

Then Jesus spoke. He said that the Scripture He had just read was talking about Him. Jesus was telling the people that He was the Savior whom God had promised to send. The people asked, “Isn’t this Joseph’s son?” They were amazed at what Jesus said.
