Abraham and Sarah

VERSE

God will help me.
(Isaiah 50:7)

Look at BABY PICTURES

Sit down with your child and show her baby pictures of herself. Talk about how happy and thankful you were when God gave you your child(ren). Mention that Abraham and Sarah wanted a baby and were so happy when baby Isaac was born (reverse side). Say a prayer thanking God for your child by name.

Pick Up STRAWS

Place several straws (three different colors) in a cup. Assign each color one of the three labels: person, place, thing. Invite your child to choose a straw. Help your child think of one thing within that category for which to be grateful (person–grandma, place–church, thing–a favorite toy). Repeat until each straw is chosen. Remark that Abraham and Sarah thanked God (reverse side). Comment that we have many reasons to be thankful.

Look at FAMILY PICTURES

Hold your baby in your lap as you look through pictures of family members. Name the people in the pictures. Remind your baby that God told Abraham he would have a family with many children (reverse side). Mention that Abraham said, "Thank You, God, for baby Isaac. Thank You, God, for my family." Thank God for the people in your family.

Abraham and Sarah

Based on Genesis 12:1-3; 15; 17:1-22; 18:9-15; 21:1-7

Abraham loved God and did what God said. God made a promise to Abraham. "I will be with you," God said. "Your family will grow and be great."

God told Abraham to count the stars. God knew there were too many stars to count! God said that Abraham would have as many children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and other descendants as there were stars in the sky.

Abraham and Sarah were very old. They thought they were too old to have a baby. They wondered how God would give them a great family, but they believed God.

One day God said to Abraham, "Your wife Sarah will have a baby boy, and you will name him Isaac."

Abraham and Sarah waited. Then the exciting day came! Sarah had a baby boy, just as God had promised!

Abraham and Sarah were so happy. They named the baby Isaac like God said.

Abraham and Sarah

Genesis 12:1-3; 15; 17:1-22; 18:1-15; 21:1-7

God spoke to Abram and told him that He would bless him and make his name great. God also said He would bless those who bless Abram and curse those who curse Abram.

When Abram was 99 years old, God appeared to him in a vision and said, "I am God Almighty. Obey Me and I will set up My covenant (promise) between Me and you."

Abram fell facedown, and God continued: "Here is My covenant with you. You will become the father of many nations. Your name will no longer be Abram; your name will be Abraham, for I will make you the father of many nations. I will bless you greatly and make you the father of many nations and kings." God also changed Sarai's name to Sarah. God said, "I will bless her and give her a son."

Abraham laughed to himself, "How can a child be born to a man who is 100 years old and to a woman who is 90?"

But God said, "In one year Sarah will have a son, and you will name him Isaac. I will make My covenant with him and his family."

God kept His promise. A year later, Sarah gave birth to a son. Abraham named his son Isaac, just as God had told him to do.
