DISCUSSION GUIDE

- Icebreaker -

July 21st is both National Ice Cream Day and National Junk Food Day. How will/did you celebrate?

1. In this Foundations series, we have looked at why it's important for us as individuals and as a church to be outward-focused. Pastor Tom stated that "...water baptism is an important part of that foundation." In what ways is the next step of baptism an outward-focused act for a Christ-follower?
2. Pastor Tom reminded us of what the New Testament teaches us about baptism: it means "to immerse," it is "always a symbolic act," it was an act Jesus submitted to as "an example to all His followers," and is practiced very soon after someone says their 'YES!' to following Jesus. Review the baptism examples listed in Acts 2:29-41, 8:4-13, 26-39, 9:1-19, 16:11-15, 18:1-8, and 19:1-5. What excuses/rationalizations have you or others used in delaying this important next step and how did you or could you overcome them?
3. Pastor Tom listed how God used baptism in Paul's life to make his faith known, connect with God's family (Acts 9:19b), share his story (Romans 6:4-5), and allowed him to take next steps (Act 9:20-22). How has or how would baptism do the same for you? Explain.
4. In quoting the teachings of Martin Luther, John Calvin and John Wesley, Pastor Tom explained that these theologians understood that baptism was to be by immersion as it was practiced in the early church. If you have a background with the tradition of infant baptism that was done for you, how would you encourage others (or yourself) to take this next step for themselves (or for yourself)?
5. On Sunday 7/28, we will celebrate those taking their next step of baptism at our summer picnic and baptism service at the Becker Community Center. If you are taking this next step, who are you inviting to share in your story, and if you've already taken this step, who might you encourage to take their next step, or come celebrate/serve with you at this event?

Day One: John 18; Psalm 86

Day Two: Exodus 36; Proverbs 24

Day Three: Romans 8; 2 Samuel 6

Day Four: Titus 3; Jeremiah 20

Day Five: Job 24; Acts 2
