DISCUSSION GUIDE

- Icebreaker -

What's a book or story you'd love to see become a movie one day, and why?

1. Pastor Tom stated that while being a follower isn't popular, "you can't be a great leader without being a great follower." Why is it less appealing to be a follower than a leader?
2. Read Exodus 3:1. God used Moses' ordinary routines to begin an extraordinary encounter. How has God worked through your routines?
3. Read Exodus 3:2-3. Moses' openness to an extraordinary event in his everyday routine set him up to hear from God. What practice(s) will you develop to stay alert to God getting your attention in your routines?
4. Read Exodus 3:4-5. Moses let God interrupt his routines and opened himself up to listen to Him. What present routines or fixations on the past will you set aside to better listen to God?
5. Read Exodus 3:7-10 and 1 Corinthians 1:26-31. By grace, God used Moses despite his past, and He wants to do the same for you. How will you claim God's offer of a new beginning today?

“Grace to Follow”

Pastor Tom Lundeen | Nov 16, 2025

Note Deuteronomy 34:10-12

Followership = far less popular topic.

The reality is you can't be a good leader without being a great follower.

Being a great follower is crucial to our character development.

God knew Moses needed 40 years in His School of the Desert program.

1. Learn that God Works in the Routines of Life

(note Exodus 3:1)

40 years/14,600 days

Living on purpose means developing spiritual sensitivity in our daily lives...a spiritual radar that picks up God's activity in the routine, ordinary, mundane schedule of our lives.

In the common, ordinary, everyday circumstances of our lives, God occasionally does something altogether extraordinary. He burns a bush, as it were. (Hamby)

Good followers know that there aren't just coincidences/random events...

...there's a God-ordained plan for our lives and this world.

Because of that, any routine day can contain amazing moments God uses to connect/communicate with us.

2. Are Open to God's Special Interventions (note Exodus 3:2)

Ordinary bush - Literal = thorny shrub = common desert plant.

The bush wasn't special...

...what was happening to the bush was amazing/unique.

Note Exodus 3:3

He knew where he was = mountain of God (note Exodus 3:1).

Good followers look for ways to follow and be open to special ways God uses at times to get our attention.

3. Listen (note Exodus 3:4)

Sometimes we remain clueless about God's purpose for our life because we are unwilling to interrupt the routines of life, deal with our prejudices and fixation on the past, and move towards God.

There are times we need to stop what we're doing, eliminate the noise and static that clutters our minds and hearts, and listen to what God is trying to tell us.

It's me!

There's no record that God had ever spoken to Moses once during the 14,600 days he spent in Midian...

But good followers understand that God can speak to ordinary people on an average day, so it's important to learn to listen.

Note Exodus 3:5

4. Realize God Gives 2nd Chances

Moses could have easily concluded that 40 years earlier, he had blown his opportunity, and that his life was only going to be lived out in obscurity and lost dreams in the desolation of Midian.

He could have permanently assigned his life to the garbage dump of history.

But God specializes in resurrecting lives.

Note Exodus 3:6

I am the God of failures...I am the God of ordinary/flawed people who were used in extraordinary ways.

Note 1 Corinthians 1:26-31

Note Exodus 3:7-10
