DISCUSSION GUIDE

- Icebreaker -

Finish this sentence.

There is nothing better than...

1. Read Luke 19:36-44. What stands out to you about how the crowd responds to Jesus versus how Jesus responds to the moment?
2. The crowd celebrated Jesus but misunderstood Him. Where do you see this same tension today (or even in your own life) between celebrating Jesus and truly understanding Him?
3. What's one area of your life where you tend to hold on tightly (authority, control, influence, priorities, loyalties, assumptions)? What might it look like to become more teachable there? (See Message Notes for Biblical Resources)
4. Jesus knew what the people needed most, even when they didn't. What is something in your life right now where you want one thing, but God may be trying to show you something deeper that you actually need?
5. What would it look like for you to "not miss the moment" this week? Who is one person you can intentionally invite, or help, to see Jesus more clearly?

Palm Sunday "Don't Miss the Moment"

Tony Myles | March 29, 2026
(Nate Sickler at Buffalo Campus)

Some moments in life are more defining than we realize. (Luke 19:28-44)
Palm Sunday reminds us of an uncomfortable truth... we can be around Jesus and still miss Him.

Celebrating what Jesus has done matters. (Luke 19:37-39)

- It's possible to celebrate Jesus and still misunderstand Him.
- It's possible to celebrate Jesus with filters. (Psalms 107:2; Psalm 136:1)

Jesus as He fully is disrupts us into becoming who we fully are.
(Luke 19:39-40)

- Reaction: We can be concerned and protective...
 - about our authority (if so, later look up Mark 10:42-45)
 - about our influence (if so, later look up Matthew 5:14-16)
 - about our control (if so, look up Proverbs 3:5-6)
- Response: We can be open and teachable...
 - about our priorities (if so, later look up Mark 6:33)
 - about our loyalties (if so, later look up James 1:22-25)
 - about our assumptions (if so, later look up Isaiah 55:8-9)

Jesus knows what's needed most. (Luke 19:41-42a)

- The people wanted peace but didn't understand where true peace comes from. (Romans 5:1-2)
- Jesus sees who we are...both within and beyond our circumstances.

We can know about Jesus, like Jesus, respect Jesus, and still not trust Jesus.

- In that moment, He knew what we needed most and He gave us what we needed most... Himself.

Don't Miss the Moment:

- Say 'YES!' to Jesus.
- Look to Him to help you see what's needed most.
- Missing Jesus can become contagious. (Luke 19:43-44a)

Don't miss this...

Genuinely help someone else see Jesus.
