Mention that your child can see drawings of Jesus on the pages, but Thomas saw Jesus in real life! Tell the Bible story (reverse side). State: "Jesus is the Son of God. John 20:31." Pray, thanking God for sending Jesus.

Play "I SPY"

Remind your child that Thomas used his eyes to see Jesus. Explain that you and your child will use your eyes to see different things in the room. Say: "I spy something (name a color)" and invite your child to guess what the object is. Give your child the opportunity to reciprocate if possible. State: "I spy the Bible." Open the Bible to John 20:31 and read the verse aloud.

On Sunday night after Jesus' death, the disciples were together in a room. They were afraid that the people who hurt Jesus might come after them, so they locked the door.

Suddenly, Jesus was standing in the room with the disciples! "Peace to you," He said. Jesus showed the disciples His hands and His side. They knew that it really was Jesus, and they were happy.

One of the disciples, Thomas, was not in the room when Jesus came. When the other disciples told Thomas what had happened, Thomas did not believe them.

Eight days later, the disciples were in a locked room again. This time Thomas was with them. Suddenly, Jesus came and stood with the disciples.

Thomas could see that Jesus was really alive! Jesus told Thomas, "You believed because you have seen Me. People who believe in Me without seeing Me are blessed."

Thomas Saw Jesus

JOHN 20:19-31

After Jesus died on the cross, the disciples were very afraid even though Mary Magdalene had told the disciples Jesus was alive, and they had seen the empty tomb.

Because the disciples were afraid of the Jews, they were meeting in a room with the door locked. The disciple named Thomas was not with them. Even though the door was locked, Jesus was suddenly standing in the room with the disciples. Jesus said, "Peace be with you" and showed them the wounds on His hands and His side.

The disciples were so happy! They were excited to tell Thomas they had seen Jesus! But Thomas did not believe them. Thomas said if he did not see the marks on Jesus' hands himself or touch the wound on Jesus' side himself, he would never believe.

A week later, the disciples were back in the same room with the doors locked. This time Thomas was with them. Even though the doors were locked again, Jesus appeared in the room. Jesus looked at Thomas and spoke to him. Jesus asked Thomas to put his finger on His hand and touch His side so he would know it was really Him.

Thomas did not have to touch Jesus' side to believe, he immediately began to worship Jesus saying, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said that any people who believed in Him without seeing were blessed.

JOHN 20:19-31

On the evening that Jesus rose from the grave, the disciples were inside a room with the doors locked because they were afraid of the Jews. All of a sudden, Jesus appeared with them, saying, "Peace be with you." Then He showed them the scars on His hands and His side, and the disciples were happy to see Jesus.

Jesus told the disciples He was sending them to continue His work on earth and the Holy Spirit would help them as they told the good news about Jesus and announced the forgiveness of those who repent and believe on Him.

But Thomas was not there when Jesus came. When the other disciples told Thomas what had happened, Thomas said that he would not believe unless he could see and touch Jesus' scars, too.

A week later, Jesus appeared to the disciples again. This time Thomas was there. Jesus invited Thomas to touch His hands and His side and to believe. When Thomas saw that it was Jesus, he said, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus replied, "You believed in Me because you saw Me. Blessed are those who have not seen Me and believe."

Jesus is alive! On the same night His disciples heard that Jesus was alive, they gathered together in a secret place with the door securely locked. They were afraid of the people who had arrested and put Jesus to death.

Suddenly, Jesus was with them! "Peace be with you," Jesus said. He showed the disciples where His hands and His side were wounded when He was on the cross. The disciples were very glad to see Jesus. Jesus explained that He wanted them to go and tell others. He promised to send the Holy Spirit to help them, and He told the disciples to forgive others.

Thomas, one of the disciples, was not with the group. The other disciples told Thomas, "We've seen the Lord," but Thomas didn't believe them.

Thomas said, "If I don't see and feel the marks that the nails made in His hands and touch His side, I will not believe it!"

A week later the disciples were together again. This time Thomas was with them. The door was locked, but that did not stop Jesus from coming and standing with the disciples. "Peace be with you," Jesus said to them.
