Philip Told a Man About Jesus

ACTS 8:26-40

“Go south to the Gaza road,” an angel told Philip.

When Philip was on the road, he saw a man from the country of Ethiopia. The man was traveling in a chariot. He had been in Jerusalem to worship God. Now he was reading aloud from a scroll the words of the prophet Isaiah.

The angel told Philip, “Go to the chariot.”

Philip went up to the man. “Do you understand what you are reading?” Philip asked.

“How can I unless someone helps me?” the Ethiopian man replied. He asked Philip to sit in the chariot.

The man asked Philip to explain who Isaiah was writing about.

Philip used the Scripture that the man had been reading, and told him about Jesus. The Ethiopian man became a believer.

Soon they came to some water. “Can I be baptized?” the man asked. So Philip baptized him. Then God took Philip away.

The Ethiopian man was rejoicing. He was so happy!

Philip continued telling about Jesus in all the towns through which he passed.

ACTS 8:26-40

One day, an angel came to Philip with a message from God: "Go to the road from Jerusalem to Gaza." Right away, Philip went to the road.

Philip saw an Ethiopian man traveling in a chariot. The man was an important official for the queen of the Ethiopians. The man was on his way home. As he was sitting in his chariot, he read aloud from the Scriptures in Isaiah.

The Holy Spirit told Philip, "Go to that chariot." Philip ran up to the chariot and heard the man reading from the book of Isaiah. Philip said, "Do you understand what you're reading?"

The Ethiopian said, "No! How can I understand unless someone helps me? Will you come sit in my chariot and help me?"

Philip knew the part of Isaiah the man was reading. (Read aloud verses 32-33 from your Bible.)

The Ethiopian asked Philip, "Who is the prophet talking about?" Philip began to teach the man the good news about Jesus, starting with the Scripture the man had been reading.

As the men were traveling down the road, they came to some water. The Ethiopian asked, "What would keep me from being baptized in this water?"

The Ethiopian stopped the chariot. Both men went down to the water. Philip baptized the man.

When the men came up out of the water, God suddenly carried Philip away. The Ethiopian could no longer see him, but he went away happy because He knew and believed in God. Philip later appeared in another town, preaching about Jesus.
