

Play Out the BIBLE STORY

Spread two towels on the floor with the narrow ends touching as a pretend sea. Tell the Bible story (reverse side). Fold the edges of the touching towels back, pretending the water is separated. Invite your child to walk across the sea on the dry land. Return the towels to touching. Comment that the Israelites crossed the Red Sea because God made a way. Only God can cause the sea to dry up like that. God can do all things.

VERSE

No one is like God.
2 SAMUEL 7:22

SCOOP and POUR Water

Place this page in a ziplock bag and put the bag in the bottom of a plastic tub. Fill the tub with about 2 inches of water. Provide measuring cups and funnels for your child to use to scoop and pour. Mention that God parted the Red Sea so the Israelites could cross on dry land. Show the Bible story picture (reverse side). Say: "That is something only God can do. No one is like God."

BABIES

PLAY in Water

Place some bath toys and toy people figures in the water (small tub or during bath). Demonstrate how to move toys through the water. Tell the Bible story (reverse side). Say that God helps people in many ways. Enjoy splashing and moving toys in the water together.

BABIES

Pharaoh (king) told Moses and the Israelites to leave Egypt.

The people left and traveled to the Red Sea.

God told Moses to put his hand over the water.

The water moved and made a path for the Israelites to cross. God helped the Israelites be safe.

1s

Moses led the people away from Pharaoh (king).

The people walked to the Red Sea and stopped to rest.

Pharaoh chased after the people. The people were afraid.

God told Moses, "Stretch your hand out over the water."

When Moses did that, the water separated, leaving a path to walk.

The people crossed the sea on dry land.

2s

Moses led the people away from Pharaoh (king of Egypt).

God led the people during the day with a cloud and fire at night so they could see as they traveled.

They stopped near the Red Sea to rest.

Pharaoh changed his mind after the people left. He wanted them to come back and work for him again.

Pharaoh and his men chased after the people. The people were afraid.

Moses said, "Do not be afraid. God will help us and protect us."

God told Moses to stretch his arm out over the water. When he did, the water separated, leaving a path to walk.

The people crossed on dry land and were safe.

BASED ON EXODUS 13:17-22; 14

WEEKLY VERSE: God, You can do anything. Job 42:2

LIFE POINT: God can do all things.

Pharaoh, the leader of Egypt, told Moses to lead the Israelites away from Egypt.

God led Moses and the people around toward the Red Sea.

God led them with a cloud during the day and a fire to give light at night. Once they reached the Red Sea, God told Moses to tell the people to camp.

When Pharaoh was told that Moses and the people had left, Pharaoh changed his mind. Pharaoh and his men came after the Israelites to bring them back to Egypt. When the people saw all the men coming toward them, they were afraid. Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid. Watch and see how God will save us."

God told Moses to stretch his hand over the Red Sea. Moses obeyed, and God divided the sea with a big wind. There was dry land before them, with water on the left and on the right. The Israelites walked on dry land to the other side of the Red Sea.

When everyone was across, God told Moses to stretch his hand out again. This time the sea flowed back together. God had saved His people. The people were amazed at what God had done!

The Israelites at the Red Sea

EXODUS 13:17-22; 14

When Pharaoh let the Israelites leave Egypt, God led them toward the Red Sea. The people followed a pillar of cloud during the day and a pillar of fire during the night so they would know which way to go. They camped near the Red Sea, surrounded by mountains and water.

When Pharaoh realized that the Israelites really had left, he changed his mind and decided to go after them. He took 600 of his best chariots and hundreds of troops to chase after the Israelites. As Pharaoh got close, the Israelites saw him and his army approaching. They were scared because they were trapped. But Moses said, "Don't be afraid. The Lord will fight for us."

God told Moses to lift his staff and stretch out his hand over the Red Sea. Moses obeyed and stretched out his hand over the waters. God pushed the waters back with a powerful wind and turned the sea into dry land. When the waters divided, the Israelites walked through on dry ground with a wall of water on their right and their left.

All of Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and officers chased after the Israelites and went into the dry bed of the sea. God told Moses to stretch his hand out over the sea again so the sea would return to normal. Moses obeyed. As he stretched his hand out over the sea, all the water rushed back in and covered the horses, chariots, and officers. No one from Pharaoh's army lived.

When the Israelites saw the great power of God, they trusted God and believed in Him.
