

VERSE

God made the world.
GENESIS 1:3 1

GO to a GARDEN

Visit a public garden together. Tell the Bible story (reverse side) as you walk through the garden. Tell that Adam and Eve lived in a special garden that God made for them to enjoy. Say that God made people different from the other things He made.

Make HANDPRINTS
and FOOTPRINTS

Paint your child's hands with washable paint. Help her press them onto paper. Repeat the process with her feet. Talk about God making people special. Tell the Bible story (reverse side).

BABIES

LOOK in the MIRROR

Look in the mirror with your baby. Point out the different body parts you see. Thank God for eyes to see, ears to hear, and a mouth to talk. Remind your baby that God made the most special thing of all—people. Tell your baby that she is wonderfully made by God and that He loves her.

God Made People

BASED ON GENESIS 1:26–2:24

WEEKLY VERSE: I am wonderfully made. Psalm 139:14

LIFE POINT: God made people.

God made a wonderful world. He made day and night, land and water, and plants and trees. God made the sun, moon, and stars. He made animals that live in water, birds, and land animals.

After God made all the land animals on the sixth day, He said, “I will make man. He will be in charge of all the animals. He will take care of the plants I have made.”

The man lived in the garden of Eden. God told him to work in the garden and take care of it.

God brought the animals to the man and said, “Give each animal a name.” The man did what God told him to do.

Then God decided the man should not be alone. He made a woman to be the man’s helper. Now the man would not be alone. God made people different from the other things He made. He made them able to choose to love and obey Him.

Evening came, and the sixth day was done. On the seventh day, God rested. He created everything in six days!

every path he takes.
PROVERBS 5:21

God asked Cain where his brother was and Cain responded: "Am I to watch over my brother?"

Eve gave birth to sons, Cain and Abel.

The Lord cursed Cain,
but put a mark on him so that no one would kill him.

Cain became so angry that he killed
his brother, Abel.

God was pleased with Abel's offering, but He was not pleased with Cain's offering.

Abel brought the very best of his flock as an offering to the Lord.

Cain gathered some of his crops to bring to the Lord as an offering.

Cain and Abel

GENESIS 4:1-16

God made Adam and Eve, the first man and woman. They lived in the garden of Eden with God until they sinned and disobeyed Him. (Genesis 1-3)

After God sent Adam and Eve out of the garden, they had two sons, Cain and Abel. When the boys grew up, Cain became a farmer who worked the ground, and Abel became a shepherd who cared for flocks.

When the time came to make an offering to the Lord, Cain presented some of his crops, and Abel offered some of the firstborn animals from his flock. God was pleased with Abel's offering and accepted it, but God did not approve of Cain's offering. This made Cain very angry, and his anger showed on his face.

God spoke to Cain, "Why are you so angry? If you do what is right, won't you be accepted? If you do not do what is right, sin is at your door. You must control it."

Cain told Abel, "Let's go out to the field." While they were there, Cain attacked his younger brother and killed him.

Later, God asked Cain, "Where is your brother, Abel?"

"I do not know," Cain replied. "Am I supposed to watch over my brother?"

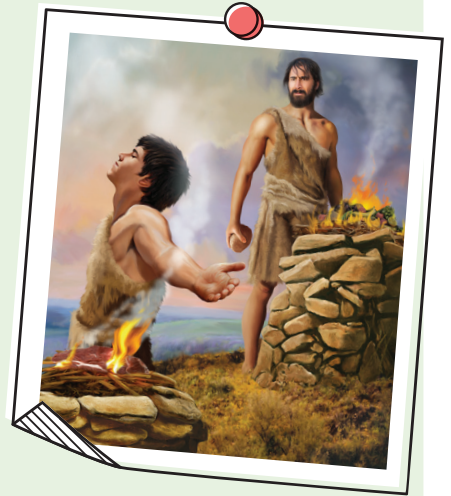

God knew exactly what Cain had done. God said, "What have you done? You are cursed now. The ground will not produce crops for you. You will be a restless wanderer on the earth."

Cain complained and said, "My punishment is too hard! When I wander, whoever finds me will kill me."

God heard Cain and told him He would put a mark on him so that anyone who killed him would be punished severely. Cain went away from God's presence and lived in the land east of Eden.
