Jesus and His disciples (helpers) were traveling. They went to the town where two sisters lived. Mary and Martha were Jesus' friends.

The sisters were happy to see Jesus. Martha invited Jesus to come inside the house. Mary sat on the floor near Jesus. She listened carefully as Jesus talked. She wanted to hear everything Jesus said.

Martha did not sit down. She was busy in the house preparing food for Jesus to eat. Soon, Martha noticed that she was doing all the work. She said to Jesus, "I am doing all the work by myself. Don't you think Mary should be helping me? Tell my sister to help me."

Jesus said, "Martha, do not worry about what needs to be done. Mary is listening to Me, and that is very important. She has made the right choice."

Jesus loved His friends Mary and Martha. They loved Jesus, too.

Jesus Visited Mary and Martha

LUKE 10:38-42

One day Jesus was traveling with His disciples. They stopped at a village where a woman named Martha welcomed Jesus into her home. Martha's sister, Mary, was at the house, too.

After Jesus came in, He began to teach the people gathered in Martha's home. Mary sat at Jesus' feet with the other people and listened to everything He said, but Martha was distracted. There was so much work to do!

Martha hurried to get things ready to serve Jesus and the others, but Mary made a different choice. She continued to sit near Jesus and listen to all He said.

Martha was upset! She came to Jesus and said, "Lord, don't You care that my sister has left all the work to me? Tell Mary to help me!"

Jesus answered Martha in a surprising way. He said, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and upset about so many things, but really only one thing is the most important. Mary has made the right choice. Her choice will not be taken away from her."
