

PLAY with Sheep

Invite your child to play with toy sheep and a toy farm building (or blocks). Tell that Moses was caring for sheep when he saw the burning bush. Show the Bible story picture (reverse side) and tell the Bible story. Guide your child to pray, asking God to help your family.

Thank God for loving you and sending others to help you.

BABIES

LOOK at a Bible

Help your baby open the Bible and turn pages. Explain that the Bible is special book. Say: "Stories in the Bible help us learn about God." Turn to Exodus 3. Show the Bible story picture (reverse side) and tell the Bible story. Comment: "God told Moses He would help him. God helps us, too. God is good to us." Pray and thank God for ways He helps and takes care of your family.

HELP Each Other

Talk to your child about being a helper. Give him special jobs to do around the house. Encourage your child as he helps. Tell that God gave Moses a special job to do. Talk about the Bible story (reverse side). Thank your child for being a helper.

God Spoke to Moses

BASED ON EXODUS 3:1–4:17

WEEKLY VERSE: God is good to us.

Psalms 73:1

LIFE POINT: God is real, and He loves us.

One day Moses was taking care of his father-in-law's sheep. He was far away from everyone, in the wilderness, by a mountain.

Moses saw a bush on fire, but the bush did not burn up! Moses moved closer so he could see the bush better. God spoke to Moses from the bush. "Moses, do not come closer. Take off your sandals because this is a special place." Moses hid his face because he was afraid to look at God.

God told Moses about His plans to save the Israelite people. Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, kept them as slaves. He was mean to the people and made them work very hard. God heard the people ask for help.

God said, "Moses, I am sending you to talk to Pharaoh so that you can lead the people out of Egypt." Moses tried to make excuses. He did not think he could lead the people. God said, "Tell the people that I am the God of their family—the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I will be with them."

Moses had trouble speaking. He did not think Pharaoh would listen to him. He asked God to send someone else, but God said no. "You will be the one to do this! I will send your brother, Aaron, with you. He will speak for you. I will help you both and teach you what to say." Moses trusted God and obeyed.

Moses and the Burning Bush

EXODUS 3:1–4:17

Moses had been born in Egypt, but now he lived far away and took care of sheep. One day Moses noticed a bush that was burning, but the bush did not burn up!

Suddenly, God called from the bush, “Moses! Don’t come any closer. Take off your sandals. You are standing on holy ground.” Moses was afraid to look at God, so he hid his face. Then God said, “I have seen how My people are suffering in Egypt. I have heard them cry out, and I have come to rescue them.

Moses, I want you to lead My people out of Egypt!”

Moses did not understand why God would choose him, but God assured Moses that He would be with him. Moses asked, “What will I say when the people want to know Who sent me? What should I tell them?”

God said, “I AM WHO I AM. Say, ‘I AM’ has sent me!” Moses responded, “What if they won’t believe me?”

God gave Moses three miraculous signs to convince the people that God sent him. First, God said, “Throw your staff on the ground.” Moses’ staff turned into a snake! When God told Moses to pick up the snake by the tail, it became a staff again. Next, God said, “Put your hand inside your cloak.” When Moses took out his hand, it was covered with a skin disease. God told Moses to take his hand from his cloak a second time, and it was healed! Finally, God told Moses, “If the people still do not believe, take water from the Nile River and pour it on the ground. It will turn into blood.” God assured Moses that these signs would show the people that God had sent him.

Still, Moses made excuses. He exclaimed, “Please, Lord! I do not speak well.”

God replied, “I will help you speak.”

Moses begged, “Please send someone else!” God became angry with Moses, but He sent Moses’ brother, Aaron, to help him speak to the people. God said that He would teach Moses and Aaron what to do.

WEEKLY BIBLE VERSE: Joshua 21:45

LIFE POINT: God will do what He says.

THE BIBLE MEETS LIFE

The Bible story showed your child that God will do what He says. From a burning bush, God told Moses He would save the Israelite people from slavery in Egypt. God did what He said!
