

REVELATION

Summer Bible Reading Plan

Over the next eleven weeks, we're encouraging the whole church to read through the Book of Revelation—the disciple John's letter to the early churches based on a vision he received from God. Revelation is full of wisdom, challenge, symbolism, and prophecy that spans the entire biblical history and points to the future as well. Reading it will raise many questions—some that we can answer confidently right now, and some that will only be answered when Jesus returns.

Make time any five days of each week to read the selected passage. If you get behind, don't worry! Just pick up where you left off, anytime. Reading through the book is more important than keeping the schedule.

If you want to learn more about Revelation, how it fits into the rest of the Bible, what it teaches us, and how to apply it to your life, join Pastor Julie Burleson for the 2-part workshop “How to Read the Book of Revelation.”

We'll cover the book in two parts, and you'll come away with helpful tools and insights to make your reading of Revelation more meaningful this summer. Even if you can only attend one of the two workshops, you'll gain a balanced perspective on this often misunderstood “final chapter” of scripture.

Part 1: Wednesday, June 5 • 6:00–7:30 PM in Room 215

Part 2: Monday, July 8 • 6:00–7:30 PM in Room 215
