

7 Weeks through the Gospel of John

Make time every day to read a section of John's account of Jesus' ministry. If you fall behind in your reading, just pick up where you left off anytime. Spending time in scripture is more important than keeping a schedule.

If you'd like to go deeper, try the BREAD Bible reading method (on back).

AN OPTION AS YOU READ...

BREAD Bible Reading Method

To help us encounter Jesus through our Scripture reading, there's a way of engaging with a passage that helps us slow down and find a personal encounter with God as we read. It's called BREAD, and it's a simple acronym to guide your time in God's Word. Bread is a modern take on lectio divina, an ancient and time-tested method of meeting with God in the pages of the Bible. It will help you pray, meditate, and journal through the Scripture passages.

Allow these prompts to guide your time as you read each day.

BE STILL. Start by putting away your devices or any distractions and get into a comfortable but alert position. Take a moment to let the noise of your mind settle. Be present to your breath, and invite the Holy Spirit to guide your time.

READ. When you're ready, read through the Scripture for that day. After a minute, reread the passage again slowly. As you read, notice what stands out to you about and write it down.

ENCOUNTER. Meditate on what God highlighted to you in the passage by journaling or thinking through questions like:

- Where does this intersect with my current life and circumstances?
- What might God want me to know about himself, myself, or others?
- Is God revealing a lie or truth he wants me to notice and respond to?
- What else might God be saying to me?

APPLY. Next, begin to name and write down how God might want you to carry what he's saying into your day. What truth do you need to hold onto today? How might God want to change you through this passage? Write down how you are going to apply this truth practically today.

DEVOTE. Finally, write or say a prayer, committing yourself to what God has been revealing to you and how you want to be transformed by him and his truth.
